Haunted pub is up for sale at £400k

AN historic Cannock pub – believed to be one of the UK's most haunted buildings – has been put on the market at £400,000.

The Four Crosses, on the A5 at Hatherton is being sold through property specialists Colliers International.

The partly half-timbered pub was built in 1636 and its history includes several tragic deaths that supposedly led to a series of ghostly and mysterious encounters. In 2012 the former coaching inn and manor house was featured on the Yesterday Channel's Great British Ghosts programme, hosted by Michaela Strachan.

Ghostly

Paul Hands, a director at Colliers International said: "The history of the building is astounding and its haunted rooms add to the experience."

"Events often take place advertising the pub's ghostly inhabitants, drawing a wide popularity to the pub and its local area."

"There are several reports of paranormal experiences at the Four Crosses, many of which have been reported by both staff and visitors alike."

"Glasses smashing, unexplained footsteps, and the apparition of a young girl are the most common of all the reports."

Crash kills van driver

A VAN driver from Rugeley was killed in a crash on the A38 near Burton.

The victim has been formally identified as Christopher Shaun Parrish, known as Shaun, aged 42, from Coalpit Lane.

The collision, on Monday at about 2.50pm, involved a white transit van and an articulated lorry. The HGV driver was treated for shock.

Witnesses can call PC Andy Talbot at Staffordshire Police on 101 quoting incident 348 of October 28.

Ex-Chronicle reporter conquers mountain challenge

Aaron Moreton of Trident Reach & Michelle Pearson with trek guide Moses at the summit of Mt Kilimanjaro

A PR Director ditched her laptop and notepad for a rucksack and hiking boots as she conquered one of the world's highest mountains for charity.

Former Chronicle and Express & Star reporter Michelle Pearson, of Cannock, trekked up Mount Kilimanjaro in Africa – the highest free-standing mountain in the world – in aid of Trident Reach the People Charity.

She and a group of colleagues from the charity braved extreme temperatures and high altitude to reach the 19,330ft summit.

Sponsorship is still coming in but, along with other fundraising initiatives over the next few months, the successful trek will help raise a target figure of £75,000.

Funds will pay for three minibuses to offer a transport lifeline to vulnerable people, including the elderly and women and children who have fled domestic abuse, to enjoy trips out.

Michelle was joined on the fundraising trip by 10 colleagues from Trident Reach and a number of friends and relatives. The intrepid adventurers spent eight days completing the trek.

As well as contending with the risk of altitude sickness, they climbed its slopes in temperatures ranging from 27C during the day to -20C at night. Michelle, aged 31, said: "It was a fantastic experience and was amazing to finally reach the summit after days of trekking."

"It's difficult to put the experience into words but is something we'll all talk about for a long time and it was great to do it for such a worthwhile cause."

She got in training for the trip by walking, swimming and doing gym classes such as zumba and step.

Legion on the hunt for poppy collectors

VOLUNTEERS are being sought to support the Poppy Appeal in the three main towns of Cannock Chase.

The Royal British Legion is looking for people in Cannock, Hednesford and Rugeley to collect donations for poppies in supermarkets. Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley joined Hednesford Poppy Appeal co-ordinator Derrick Ellison at Tesco in Hednesford last weekend.

The MP said: "Volunteers are a vital part of the Poppy Appeal and I would encourage anyone who has a few hours to spare to get in touch and volunteer."

Support

"I felt an enormous sense of pride supporting the Poppy Appeal in Tesco, in recognition of those who have given their lives in service."

The Legion would particularly like young volunteers to come forward. The charity has already worked with the local Cadet Forces. However, with the increased support of the local supermarkets, they are looking for collectors for every day of the week between now and Remembrance day.

To volunteer call community fundraiser Alison Bates on 01889 575496 or email abates@britishlegion.org.uk

Servicemen drink offer

MILITARY personnel are being offered a free pint in Burntwood to mark Remembrance Sunday.

Ember Inns is honouring the servicemen and women on November 10. Those employed by the army, navy or RAF, or anyone who served in Afghanistan or Iraq, is entitled to the offer at the Star Inn, Lichfield Road. A valid forces card must be presented.

FURY AS MINING SIGN VANDALISED

AN information plaque which was created to look at the history of Cannock Chase coalfields has been targeted by vandals.

The board, erected in Chalcot Drive, near Pye Green Valley, Cannock, cost around £250 to make. It was unveiled at the site by members of the Cannock Chase Mining Historical Society in August.

But now the aluminium sign has been cut, twisted and bent out of shape and chairman Alan Dean said the society would have to find time and money to replace it.

He said: "It is important that our mining heritage is recognised and the signs that we have erected at numerous collieries around the area are a great way of doing that."

Ruined

"It is disgusting that our most recent sign has been vandalised, especially because it was paid for by the family of a past miner. "To see it destroyed in this way is unacceptable."

"There is no way this has been done by strong winds. Somebody has deliberately ruined it."

"It is very disappointing that after all of the effort that has been put into the design, content and appearance of these signs and the struggle to finance them, that this particular installation should be ruined in this way."

The vandalised sign commemo-

by Charlotte Lilley rates two of the first mines in the Hednesford area in 1871 and 1873. The society has put up a further 10 signs, with the permission of Staffordshire County Council, at collieries including Cannock Wood, East and West Cannock, Coppice and Grove Colliery.

Signs have also been placed at Brereton and Ravenhill Park, Cannock Chase Enterprise Centre and Littleton Green Community School in Huntington.

Mr Dean, aged 65, an ex-pitman, of Heath Hayes, worked at West Cannock No 5 Colliery for 21 years and spent a further nine years at Littleton Colliery, following his father, uncles, grandfather and great-grandfather down the mines after leaving Kingsmead Secondary Modern School at 15.

He added: "People need to be aware of the area's past. They should be ashamed of their actions and take notice of our rich history."

GERMAN ELECTRIC HEATING IS THE ANSWER

This incredible heating could be the answer to help beat the ever increasing energy costs and amazingly, it is not, gas or oil, or solid fuel... but electric! It's clean, Simple to install, Powerful, Economical, and no more servicing costs - EVER! All you need is a normal electricity supply and a plug socket and NO standard tariff like economy seven.

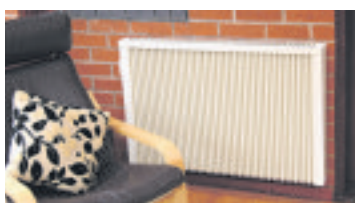

In Germany, Austria, Eastern Europe and even America, more and more people are choosing to heat their homes and offices with this very special form of electric heating in preference to gas, oil, LPG or any other form of conventional central heating or economy seven.

Here in the Midlands more and more of our customers are making that same decision and when you see this incredible heating for yourself, you could be next!

The heating looks just like a conventional radiator, but STOP! It is very, very different!

Put simply, the clunky central heating boiler needing constant servicing and replacement parts isn't the only choice any more!

Now you can choose to heat your homes, offices, extensions or conservatories with this incredible German heating which provides individual control over every single room without the need for a central control or space to site a boiler. Now the boiler space can also become a storage area!

Installation takes minutes and running is completely clean, there is no danger of leakage, no holes through walls, no floorboards up and no tradesmen trundling around the house wielding pipe cutters, hammers, wrenches and dirty work boots. This incredible heating simply plugs in and that's it! Job Done! You can even do just one room or the whole house!

Get your free info pack right away by calling 01889 576732.

Is electric heating expensive to run? You'll be amazed! Electric heating has never looked like this before, however, this is not new, it has been a mainstream form of heating for a very long time in Germany and Austria and for many people actually in preference to central heating with gas, oil or even Economy 7

Charity grants total almost £1m

A CANNOCK charity has awarded almost £1 million in grants in just six months as the demand for its services increases.

Newlife Foundation has helped hundreds of disabled children and their families across the country by donating 669 equipment grants totalling £980,000.

The figures were recorded between April 1 and September 30. In the Midlands, grants of £96,824 have been handed out to 62 families, including 35 in Staffordshire. The money will be used to buy equipment including wheelchairs, walkers and sensory and communication aids.

Newlife Foundation chief executive Sheila Brown, OBE, said: "As cutbacks to statutory services bite deeper, provision of specialist equipment for disabled and terminally ill children is being increasingly affected. This is prompting more families to turn to organisations like Newlife for the help they need in their children's everyday lives.

Specialist

"None of the equipment we provide could be classed as luxury items, it might be a wheelchair so a child can access mainstream school, a specialist bed to keep them safe at night or a communication aid.

"Newlife provides equipment that makes a real impact to the lives of disabled and terminally ill children and their families."

The foundation also supports families through a range of practical services, including a national nurse helpline.

The charity receives no Government funding and needs more than £100,000 a month to meet current demands.

Jazz band performs at annual craft fair

A POPULAR Christmas craft fair is being staged for the 11th time later this month.

Burntwood Lions are making final preparations for the annual festive event, which takes place on Saturday, November 16 at Burntwood Memorial Hall, Rugeley Road.

Last year's event attracted more than 600 visitors with crafts on offer at 50-plus stalls.

Items will include hand-made cards, jewellery, cosmetics, textiles, handbags, hats and scarves, seasonal decorations, children's toys, teddies, paintings, candles, preserves and retro sweets. Doors open from 10am to 3pm and admission is £1 for adults, with children under 12 free.

The Erasmus Darwin Jazz Band are back by popular demand following an appearance last year and will entertain visitors between 11am and 1pm. There will be a face painter and food and snacks on offer.

Proceeds will fund the Santa Special for more than 200 disabled and disadvantaged children at Chasewater Railway on November 30.

For more details call Lion Cindy on 01543 671949.

ADMINISTRATORS at Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust say it's business as usual after they were granted extra time to finalise their blueprint.

Health watchdog Monitor announced last week it was giving the administrators 55 days to write their final report, rather than just 15.

Joint administrator Alan Bloom said: "We understand this news may cause uncertainty among staff, patients and the public and therefore wish to make clear the trust will carry on in the same way that it has since we were appointed."

"We will continue to work closely with all parties involved in the process."

He said the trust would operate normally following the decision by Monitor, who says the extension is to allow more time to reach an agreement on the future funding of services.

Extend
 It comes after bosses at the University Hospital of North Staffordshire NHS Trust said they needed £125 million to bring Stafford Hospital up to scratch and extend their site in Stoke-on-Trent to take on extra patients.

Meanwhile, the Foundation Trust has not been deemed to be at 'high risk' in a new table that judges health trusts across the UK.

Analysis by the Care Quality Commission (CQC) regulator found 44 trusts with the most serious level of concern, including higher than expected death rates across their hospitals. It placed trusts in six bands, with band one considered high risk and band six the lowest - with Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust placed in band four.

A total of 161 acute trusts across England were examined by the CQC against more than 150 indicators, with 44 placed in band one.

The charity is holding a two-day wood carving course at the Wolsley Centre HQ on November 18 and 19.

As part of the course, students will learn how to transfer designs to wood, as well as sanding and finishing techniques.

Sam Pachner, fundraising assistant at Staffordshire Wildlife Trust said: "These courses always prove popular so book quickly."

The course is led by professional woodcarver Sharon Littley, who has had work commissioned for Prince Edward and Rhodri Morgan, former Welsh First Minister, as well as having books published on the subject, and running workshops for BBC Wales.

The course fee is £100, with both days running 9am-5pm.

Students can bring any chisels and tools they wish to use, and fine and medium sandpaper. Wood will be supplied by the tutor.

To book a place or for more information, call the Trust on 01889 880100.

Flushing vandalism away

A GROUP of students hope to have flushed vandalism down the pan after carrying out a project to revamp their school toilets.

Millie Coton, Jade Elson, Tegan Lockett and Ellie Ridgway, Sixth Formers at Cannock Chase High, set themselves a deadline of a week to decorate the toilets in the Maths block.

The toilets, which had been scrawled in graffiti, were closed for the duration of the work, but have now reopened with a bright new-look, thanks to a lick of paint and Mathematics stencils added to the walls.

The work was carried out as part of an environmental project at the Hednesford Road school and teachers, including head Barrie Scott and project manager Craig Bott, have complimented the girls on their efforts.

Millie said: "We are all very proud of what we have achieved and believe all the hard work we have put in has paid off."

Safety plea on bonfires

FIRE chiefs are rolling out a high-profile campaign aimed at keeping youngsters safe during bonfire celebrations.

Staffordshire Fire and Rescue Service will visit 38 primary and secondary schools across Cannock, Rugeley, Stafford and South Staffordshire to point out the hazards of fireworks and the law in relation to their use.

Prevention manager Carmel Warren said: "Sparklers, in short, can be lethal in the wrong hands."

She said offenders faced a fine of up to £500 if they set fireworks off in the street or in a public place.

Optician birthday

Children try out tree top course

MORE than 30 young Tarzans tried out Cannock Chase's new aerial obstacle course last weekend.

The 400 metre-long Tree Top Junior course at Birches Valley and launched last Saturday (October 26) and attracted 36 participants.

The course, which features 23 obstacles, is open during half-term and at weekends until December 8. It is designed for the over 6s. However, children under that age can also take part, provided they are at least a metre tall and are accompanied by an adult.

Prize can be won in baking contest

PRIZES are up for grabs at a Halloween fun day tomorrow (Friday).

The Huntington Village Champions are staging a coffee morning at the youth club in Stafford Road, from 10am to 2pm. Entry and refreshments are free.

There is a £30 voucher plus runners-up prizes for the best Halloween or bonfire cake, open to entrants aged eight, nine, 10-12, 13-18 and 18 plus.

There will also be a fancy dress prize and children's activities.

Shopping centre is selling poppies

POPPY wreaths are now on sale inside Cannock Shopping Centre.

Poppies can be bought from the town's indoor shops from 9.30am until 3.30pm.

A service will take place on Sunday, November 10 when wreaths will be laid at the cenotaph.

The meeting point is outside South Staffordshire College at 10.15am. The service will be held at St Luke's Church, followed by refreshments in the church hall.

BUSINESSES across Cannock Chase were given a huge pat on the back at a prestigious awards ceremony.

Some 140 representatives from firms across the district were in attendance at the Premier Suite in High Green for the second Cannock Chase Business awards.

The awards, held for the first time in 2012, are organised by thebestofcannock with the help of Chase MP Aidan Burley and seek to recognise the best of what Cannock Chase has to offer.

Awards were up for grabs in 11 categories, with a panel of respected judges from key organisations having decided on the winners. A special charity award was also given out. Awards were sponsored by Fitting Cat, APC Overnight, Mailcoms, thebestofcannock, The Premier Suite and PRM Green Technologies, while guests also enjoyed a buffet supplied by 2012 winners Jessica's Fresh Foods.

Among the awards up for grabs were for Excellence Displayed by a New Business, which was awarded to the Groom Room ahead of Soul Care Aesthetics and Milking Brook Furniture.

Judges had the tough task of choosing a winner from each of the nominated businesses, with stiff competition among all entrants.

In the Excellent Eatery category, the Terrazza in Rugeley walked off with the title ahead of Spice Bazaar, while Addfield Environmental Systems took the Excellence in Manufacturing prize. The Meridian Labels were highly commended. The Excellence in Retail Award went to the Engraving Company. Connect Midlands beat the Drive Cleaners Ltd to the Excellent Tradesperson award.

Separated

The Cannock & District Foodbank was the winner of the Excellence Shown by a Cannock Chase Charity award with the Hibbs Lupus Trust runner-up.

For the Excellence in Expansion/Diversification award, Mailcoms and JP Enterprises could not be separated and took joint prize ahead of the highly-commended Kazoo. Printing firm Kazoo were not to be disappointed, however, as they took the prize for Excellence in the use of Digital and Social Media award with Tamba and Cannock Ink Tattoo Studio in behind.

Bluebird Care (Mid Staffs), which provides care and support to people in the community, allowing them to remain living in their own home, piped Poppy's Beauty Salon to the Excellence in Customer Care award.

Briggs Equipment UK scored highest in the Excellent to Work For award, ahead of the Marketing Room and were highly commended along with Florida Sun, on the Excellence in Contributing to the Community award, won by EDS

Couriers. Organiser Steve Mallows, of thebestofcannock, said: "The awards are there to acknowledge the excellent businesses we have in the Cannock Chase area, of which there are many."

MP Mr Burley said 900 new companies had started up across his constituency in the past year and the reason behind the awards was to celebrate the success of businesses across the Chase.

He said: "Businesses are the lifeblood of our economy, without which our towns and communities could not flourish."

"Tonight is about celebrating what local businesses do for all of us: creating jobs, bringing life back to high streets, and acting as centres of the local community."

THE BEST OF PETER RHODES

PERRY, the cross-dressing pottery maker, is a national treasure and his Reith Lectures have been great. The thunderous applause that greeted him as he walked on stage in satin miniskirt and high heels says much for the twin British loves of plain speaking and eccentricity. But I couldn't help wondering how many members of the audience would be quite so thrilled if their daughter brought him home. "Mummy, Daddy, this is Grayson. Daddy, put the shotgun down."

DAMAGES of £15,000. Court costs of £100,000-plus. That's the price of silly Sally Berrow's tweet about Lord McAlpine and it should concentrate the minds of Tweet-ers everywhere. But it probably won't. The Tweetsphere seems full of people who haven't a clue about the laws of libel and think they can say the most outrageous things about anybody they choose. They can't. The rules on defamation that apply to every newspaper also apply to the internet and social media. So if you wouldn't shout it from a rooftop using a megaphone, then don't tweet it, email it or stick it on your website. Ninety-nine times out of 100 your tweet alleging that someone is a money-launderer, paedophile or Nazi won't even be noticed. But the 100th time, you'll get a writ for libel and it's goodbye life savings. As the Speaker's wife put it: "Mrs Berrow wishes and hopes that as a result of this matter other Twitter users will behave more responsibly." Some hope.

AFTER 30 years of spreading squidgy unsaturated-fat goo on our toast, we are told this week that butter may actually be better for us. According to new research, saturated fats, long regarded as the enemy in the fight against obesity and heart disease, may be innocent. Refined carbohydrates and sugar are the real problem. This at least explains a puzzle I raised recently. Why was it that in the days before soft spreads were invented and we all ate butter, people were slimmer and fitter?

A LOST 15-minute broadcast by David Bowie, featuring views and music from 1973, was unveiled by the BBC this week - on Radio 6 Music. This is the pop equivalent of discovering Tutankhamun's treasure and displaying it at Cromer public library. Bowie deserves better than the backwaters of Radio 6 whose breakfast show host Shaun Keaveny described the coup as "beyond exciting." Beyond belief, more like.

AFTER my recent item on food banks, a volunteer at one tells me that online gambling is a big factor in the plight of many seeking help. One part of my Methodist upbringing I cannot shake off is the belief that gambling is a social evil. Online gambling, endorsed by celebrities and presented as a fun, glamorous activity, brings this evil into the homes of the poor, the desperate and the drunk. Next stop is not a beach in the sun but a trip to the food bank.

A READER brings together two recent threads, the 200th anniversary of Pride and Prejudice, and the dilemma facing women who are expected to take their husband's unfortunate surname (Nutter, Smellie, Glasscock etc). Jane Austen never married but in 1802 she accepted a proposal of marriage from Harris Bigg-Wither. Having slept on it, the next morning she withdrew her acceptance. Austen never explained why but possibly she did not want to be responsible for a dynasty of Bigg-Withers.

A STRIKING image of a robin on a park bench clinched top prize for an Armitage teenager in a photographic competition.

Isobel Manley's monochrome photograph, called 'Bird on a Bench' set judges' hearts a flutter in the Rotary Club young photographer district competition, earning her first place in the senior category for the second year in a row.

Having excelled in the local heat, the 16-year-old's work was put forward for the district final, involving the best entries from 54 other clubs across Staffordshire, Shropshire and West Midlands.

A student at Stafford Grammar School, Isobel took her prize-winning shot during a visit to the Yorkshire Sculpture Park.

"It was quite lucky really," she said. "I was taking photos of the sculptures when I spotted a robin sitting on a bench and that picture turned out to be better than the others. I always have my camera with me when I'm out and about.

"I take hundreds of photos. It's that one shot you get lucky with at just the right moment," said Isobel.

Isobel developed an interest in photography several years ago and won a digital camera for coming runner-up in a Sunday Times Travel Magazine event this year.

Memory will live on say battling girl's parents

A CANNOCK father has paid tribute to his battling daughter, who lost an 18-month fight against leukaemia at the age of seven.

Ava Mae Tittley's devastated parents vowed her memory will live on with fundraising events in her honour. Ava was diagnosed with the disease in 2012 and underwent months of gruelling treatment including a bone marrow transplant.

Her condition improved following the operation, raising hopes that she would recover but just weeks later she deteriorated.

Her father Mark, a 47-year-old carpenter, said Ava was a beautiful and happy little girl who loved the short life she lived.

"She was a fantastic girl and a happy child. She loved life and dancing and will be missed by so many people," he said.

"People will always remember her smile and she brought a smile to everyone's face. She was beautiful and happy and kept smiling through the illness, even when she was going through the treatment. We struggle to put into words how brave she was."

Ava lived with her mother Sam Vincent in Lichfield for the past five years, after originally living with both her parents in High Town, Cannock.

Tired

A pupil at St Michael's Primary in Lichfield, she was a keen dancer and regularly attended ballet classes before she fell ill.

Her parents noticed she was becoming more tired in April 2012, so took her to the doctors, who originally thought she might have anaemia.

Within weeks she had been diagnosed with chronic myeloid leukaemia and by September had been admitted to Birmingham Children's Hospital.

Over the next eight months she spent long periods in hospital having four courses of chemotherapy. During one of her stays she even met boy band JLS in the run-up to Christmas when they visited the hospital.

Mr Tittley said: "She absolutely loved JLS so she was made up to meet them. She loved music and she was really excited."

A bone marrow transplant was carried out in March this year, and Mr Tittley said she was 'doing well' and her hair was starting to grow back. But by September her condition had started to deteriorate and it was discovered the leukaemia had returned.

"We were told to make the best of the time we had with her," Mr Tittley said. "We knew what was coming and we had to prepare for it."

Her father added: "She fought. She went through a hell of a lot in hospital. The nurses and doctors work tirelessly on that ward to help these children as much as they can but sadly there wasn't a good luck story this time."

Ava enjoyed family holidays to Cornwall, and visited three times in the final months of her life to see Mr Tittley's sister Dawn.

Her family hopes to place a bench on a cliff overlooking a beach in Trevone, Padstow, and are currently trying to get permission from the council for the tribute.

Ava died on September 28 and her funeral was held the church of St Michael on Greenhill in Lichfield. An event featuring a raffle at the Stumble Inn in Walsall Road, Cannock, raised £1,275 in Ava's memory for Leukaemia and Lymphoma Research and the Anthony Nolan Trust.

Mr Tittley added: "We're hugely grateful for the generosity of all the people that helped us to raise the sum and hopefully it will go a little way in assisting with the valuable work of the two charities."

One last chance to take look at gallery

VISITORS have one last chance to see the mining gallery at the Museum of Cannock Chase before it closes for a major refit.

The gallery is being refurbished to make way for a permanent display, set to open next Easter.

The existing gallery at the Valley Road, Hednesford, site, closes tomorrow (Friday).

Operators WLCT secured a £97,600 grant from the Heritage Lottery Fund for the project to go ahead.

The new gallery, Mining Memories, will allow visitors to experience a 'day in the life' of a colliery worker and explore features of the mines. An education package will also be created.

Enquiries

Museum services manager Lee Bellingham said: "Unfortunately the reference library will be unavailable for personal research appointments during this time, but staff will be on hand to assist with any enquiries about coal mining."

"We're looking forward to the opening of the new gallery and are currently looking for items for display."

Anyone with mining items from the Cannock Chase coalfields they are willing to loan to the museum is asked to email their contact details to s.reavey@wlct.org

Praise for the efforts of support volunteers

POLICE and Crime Commissioner Matthew Ellis praised the dedication of volunteers he met at a Victim Support meeting.

Supporting victims and witnesses is one of four key priorities in the Commissioner's recently launched Safer, Fairer, United Communities strategy and volunteers from Victim Support Staffordshire hosted a meeting with Mr Ellis at the Haling Dene Centre in Penkridge.

Mr Ellis said: "I was delighted to meet so many dedicated people who give up their time for Victim Support to make a real difference."

"There were some excellent questions and debate about how we can work together to provide the best possible service to victims and witnesses in Staffordshire."

"Victims want to be treated as individuals and not crime numbers. They need to be able to access the right service at the right time rather than trying to work through a myriad of agencies to get the help they require."

"Being a victim can be truly damaging and have a lasting impact on feelings of safety and wellbeing, which is why it's crucial that we put victims and witnesses at the heart of all we do."

Music books up for grabs

MUSICIANS can bag a bargain with a sale of printed music books in Rugeley this weekend.

Books are available for most musical instruments and will suit all ages and all stages of musicianship. They are being sold at a fraction of their recommended retail price to raise money for church funds.

The sale takes place at St Augustine's Church, Station Road, Rugeley on Saturday, November 9 from 10am to 4pm.

For further information call Joan on 01889 800465.

Church craft fair

CHILDREN can take part in a host of craft activities at a Rugeley church. The Church of the Holy Spirit, in Church Lane, Etching Hill, is hosting a craft fair on Saturday, November 30, from 10am to 2pm. It will feature a host of stalls and lunches will be served.

Businesses combine to raise vital funds for St Giles Hospice

A J Sellman Family Funeral Directors and Golden Charter hand over more than £6,000 to St Giles Hospice

MORE than £6,000 has been handed over to St Giles Hospice following a fundraising campaign by a funeral directors and a pre-paid funeral plan provider.

A J Sellman Family Funeral Directors, in Church Street, Cannock, donates £25 to the hospice every time someone pre-pays for their funeral. The funding is match-funded by the plan provider Golden Charter.

A cheque for £6,375 has now been handed over to the hospice, and staff from both firms are also giving additional support to the charity by volunteering. Linda Bridges, corporate and event fundraiser for St Giles Hospice, said: "We're incredibly grateful to A J Sellman and Golden Charter for choosing to support St Giles through their fundraising campaign."

"Every penny they've donated will go toward funding our specialist care for patients living with cancer and other serious illnesses."

Edward Poole, sixth generation family member and Manager at A J Sellman, said: "I feel very passionate about supporting St Giles Hospice. When I go out to people's homes to arrange a funeral, they often talk about the St Giles nurses, praising their skills and how well-trained they are and talking about the benefit they bring to the relatives who are losing someone."

"It costs £500 a day to fund a St Giles nurse and as a family business we wanted to make a difference to those nurses. However, this donation will only fund one nurse for just less than 13 days. It would be great if other businesses follow our lead and come on board with this fundraising project."

Michael Corish, commercial director for Golden Charter, added: "We hope our partnership with A J Sellman provides as much funding as possible."

Ivy House protesters' anger at council's summit no-show

CAMPAIGNERS fighting to save an historic building from demolition dubbed a public meeting over its future a 'farce' after no councillors turned up to the summit.

Residents are urging Staffordshire County Council to retain the 143-year-old Ivy House in Cannock, which, under plans, will be knocked down and replaced with 16 homes.

We had no invitation – members

COUNCILLORS criticised for not meeting with campaigners insisted they had not been invited – and said they would always listen to the concerns of residents.

People campaigning to save the Ivy House hit out at county councillors for not showing up to last week's public meeting.

But county councillor Mark Winnington said the authority had not been invited.

He said: "The land was sold to Galliford Try and Wrekin Housing subject to planning permission, who are looking to build much-needed affordable housing on the site."

"We will always listen to local people's views but in this case, the matter of what happens on the site is down to the developer and should be taken up with them directly, not the county council."

Alison Spicer, a Labour county councillor for Cannock Town Centre, said: "I'm totally against what the county council has done."

"I will be arranging a public meeting to save Ivy House. All residents will be notified."

"We were not aware the meeting was on."

Lodged

Around 20 campaigners turned up at Cannock's Civic Centre to discuss the plans for the former workhouse and maternity hospital – which will be formally lodged next month.

The authority has agreed to sell the building to developer Wrekin Housing Trust, which wants to pull it down and replace it with 12 affordable homes and four apartments.

Addressing the hour-long meeting, Margaret Price, aged 68, of Wolverhampton Road, said: "You are not the people we want to be talking to – we have all been under the impression that our county councillors would be here."

Gillian Roden, of Clifton Avenue, said: "Where are they? This is a farce."

Elaine Lydall, 61, of Wolverhampton Road, said: "This building means so much to people in this town, we cannot let it be sold off in this way."

Tony Bunney, development manager for Galliford Try, which will be working in partnership with Wrekin Housing Trust, said:

"Whether Ivy House should remain is an issue to raise with the county council."

Driver dies in three-car crash on A5

Recovery crews at the scene of the crash on the A5 in Norton Canes in which a man died

A MAN was killed and another injured in a three-car crash which closed a major road in Cannock for six hours.

The victim suffered a heart attack after being flung from his silver convertible Vauxhall Astra in a head-on smash with a blue Hyundai on the A5 at Norton Canes at 11.20am on Saturday.

Although formal ID has not yet been made, police believe the deceased to be Carl David Bostridge, aged 31, of Bird Brook Close, Darlaston.

A spokesman said his family were aware and were being supported by specially trained officers.

The Hyundai driver, a man believed to be in his 70s, suffered cuts to his head and shock. He was taken to New Cross Hospital in Wolverhampton for treatment.

A third car carrying a family of four was also struck but no one was injured. Both carriageways of the A5 were closed between the B4154 Norton Canes and the M6 Toll near Cannock.

Traffic was diverted and motorists on the northbound carriageway were caught up in delays of up to 15 minutes, while those going southbound had 20 minute delays.

A traffic light column was knocked down during the crash. West Midlands Ambulance Service spokesman John Hawker said: "A man had been ejected from the vehicle he was driving and was in traumatic cardiac arrest."

"Unfortunately, it quickly became apparent that nothing could be done to save the man and he was confirmed dead at the scene."

Staffordshire Police spokesman David Bailey said: "The collision involved a silver-coloured Vauxhall Astra convertible travelling towards Cannock which had been involved in collision with a blue coloured Hyundai travelling in the opposite direction."

IN MY VIEW

WITH
ANDREWS

THE local council in Leighton Buzzard has ordered a circus to remove its posters following a complaint from a member of the public who was afraid of clowns. Presumably there will be a similar ban on election posters, then. Because there are plenty of people afraid of those clowns.

THERE was the usual weather warning on the BBC Midlands news on Monday morning, after the region was hit by a bit of wind and a few hours of rain.

"People are advised to only travel in the rush hour if they really have to," was the solemn message from the newsreader. Only if they really have to? As opposed to all the people who head out at 7am on a wet October morning because they fancy a drive?

The only reason anybody goes out in the rush hour is because they have to, and the BBC and Met Office should just come clean, and say exactly what they mean. Which is: "If you work in certain public sector jobs, you can take the day off."

FIGHTING back from accusations that Wolverhampton is a city in decline, town planners unveiled their latest vision for the Princess Street area. Which looks remarkably like Princess Street does now, only with a traffic ban.

So let's get this right. The best way to bring people into our ailing towns and cities is by making them more difficult to get to.

And there was me thinking that the reason why shoppers are flocking to out-of-town retail parks is because people can drive right up to the shops, and stay for as long as they want, without fear of being hassled by zealous officials in ridiculous uniforms.

Well here's a mad suggestion. Why don't our town planners take a leaf out of the out-of-town centres, and try making it easier for motorists?

For example, instead of pedestrianising Princess Street, why don't they get rid of some of the wide footpaths, and create a few extra spaces where people can park outside the shops?

And why not create a bit of extra free, short-stay parking, in some of the existing pedestrianised areas? For what it's worth, I think some of the flak that Wolverhampton has been coping over the last few months is grossly unfair.

More than that, I am a passionate supporter of our town centres, and think the trend towards out-of-town shopping is one of the most depressing and corrosive changes to our communities over the last 20 or so years.

But when we have local authorities who think the answer is to keep traffic away from our towns, it really is hard to see how they can fight back.

Family touched by support since tragic death of Liam

The death of Liam Keeling aged 13 is still raw for the family. MARION BRENNAN reports on how they cope.

A CHESLYN Hay couple staged an open-house last weekend. But behind the chatter and laughter was a more sombre reason for the gathering.

Guests were there to remember Liam Keeling - son of Andy and Georgina - on the anniversary of his death from meningitis on October 27, 2009.

Only two weeks earlier they had been celebrating his 13th birthday. A star player for Wyrley Juniors FC, he was the fittest he had ever been and had shown no symptoms of the lethal disease.

The youngster, who also played cricket for Penkridge and Bloxwich, had picked up a cold the week before but returned to Cardinal Griffin Catholic High School in Cannock on the Wednesday for a school trip to the Black Country Museum.

Friends

On Thursday he had a sleepover with friends. They played all day and in the evening went to a race night. On Saturday afternoon Liam was sick and developed a headache and temperature but by Tuesday, the symptoms had disappeared.

That day Andy took Liam's sister Hannah and her boyfriend to Waterworld, near Stoke-on-Trent, for a day out.

Andy, a part-time postman, says: "I'd had a chat and a joke with Liam before we left. He was lying on the settee and my wife was on the computer beside him."

"He said he was going to have a nap but never woke up. Georgina called me saying 'You have to come, it's not good.'"

"When I got there the paramedics were with him."

Liam died later that day at Walsall Manor Hospital surrounded by his family. Andy says: "It was such a shock.

Parents Georgina and Andy Keeling with a picture of their son Liam

We didn't know for five days, until the post-mortem, what had killed him."

Liam's post mortem revealed he had been suffering from swine flu which, at some stage, turned to bacterial meningitis. Just two weeks later, Hannah was admitted to the Manor with the same symptoms. But to their relief, her illness turned out to be a viral infection.

After Liam's death, everything changed. Andy gave up his coaching at Wyrley Juniors where he had been Liam's manager since the under-eights. He also gave away father and son's Walsall FC season tickets.

"I couldn't face it anymore. His death is still very raw but you have to carry on. For the first couple of years it was pretty bad. I didn't have counselling but looking back it would probably have helped."

Two things, in particular, have helped to ease the Keelings' pain. The most immediate medicine came in the form of a fundraising match between Walsall FC All Stars and Wyrley Juniors in Liam's memory. It raised £6,500 for Meningitis UK and marked the start of an incredible fundraising campaign.

A committee was formed, which still meets every six weeks to organise events. Last month the fund topped £150,000.

The next fundraiser will be at Bloxwich Memorial Club on November 23 when there will be music from Ian James, Ruby Spider and Dave Carnall. Tickets are £7 or £3 for children.

Andy, 53, says: "The time the committee puts in is amazing. We can't thank them enough. Family and friends have all been wonderful."

The family were also moved when their son's old school named its new £800,000 sports pitch The Liam Keeling Arena in his memory.

The Keelings have thrown themselves into the charity work, taking part in sponsored cycling rides and completing a 201-mile walk in Ireland.

As well as boosting funds, they want to raise awareness of the disease and how quickly it can strike.

Birth

"The fundraising is a tribute to Liam and it helps keep his memory alive," says Andy. "A lot of people are doing things for Liam even now, four years later, and that helps us a lot."

The other ray of light has appeared more recently as 19-year-old Hannah has given birth to Laylah, making the Keelings grandparents for the first time.

Andy says: "For the first three or four weeks after Liam died, Hannah slept with us in our bed. She found it terrible."

"But she's gone on to do really well at school and she's now in her second year at Birmingham City University, studying to be a primary school teacher."

"Laylah has given us another focus. It's sad in one way because Liam is not here to see her."

The family have held an open-house every year on Liam's anniversary. "We're very touched that his friends come and still like to remember him," says Andy.

THE US government was seeking to build a £20m military hospital for the exclusive use of American casualties in the event of a nuclear war.

The proposals for RAF Cosford sparked fury among residents. A report by Washington's Institute of Policy Studies said 15 new specialist hospitals were needed because US military planners were preparing for a protracted war in Europe.

Vice-chairman of Albrighton Parish Council, Councillor Malcolm Pate, said: "If such facilities are to be built, they should be put in use for local people."

Reel treat for pubgoers with 1940s launch night

A LANDMARK former cinema-turned-pub will be transported back to the 1940s when it reopens following a refurbishment.

The Plaza in Horsefair, Rugeley, will be kitted out with chandeliers and new furniture as well as an outdoor drinking area.

The venue will be closed from November 4 and a launch night will be held on November 16 when the styles and sounds of the 1940s will be brought back to life. Pub manager Sian Elwell said: "One of our regular customers actually used to work here when it was a cinema.

"Most of us have got our costumes already. Everyone will be in 1940s dress and we will have a number of wartime songs being performed by Chris Smith and The String of Pearls."

Film

The venue was built in the late 1920s and opened as a cinema in November 1934. The first film ever shown was American comedy Green Fields in 1937 and the last film was Independence Day in 1996.

Miss Elwell added: "This is the first time we have ever closed the pub in 15 years, so we are all very excited to see what it will look like when it re-opens.

"It looks set to be a really great night so I hope lots of people will come along to see what we have done with the place."

The Plaza, a JD Wetherspoon outlet, opened for the first time on May 20, 1998.

Moaning already on town upgrade

THE people of Rugeley never cease to amaze me and I feel something needs to be said. I refer of course to the Rugeley Horse Fair upgrade.

Work has only just started and people are already moaning. For years they have complained that Rugeley gets nothing or money is always spent in Cannock.

Now that something is being done, all I hear are negative comments.

These people complaining are the ones that will spoil it and lose the money for Rugeley because the council could quite easily say okay, we'll spend the money elsewhere, like Cannock.

Yes it's going to cause some congestion, but it won't be much worse than it already is. Why don't you just stop moaning, give them time to do the work, and then see how it goes in the next six to 12 months, before making any judgement.

RICHARD Rugeley

Justice system at an all-time low

HAVING watched Chris Grayling in the House of Commons in justice questions I was disgusted to hear that prisoners were being let out after serving only half of their sentence because of the cost of keeping them in for the full time.

I have to wonder what is the use of the judges passing down a sentence of 10 years when they only do five. They are given a sentence to fit the crime and then our Government takes it on itself to cut it in half and put them back out on the streets with a piece of paper (a licence). It does not work. Meanwhile the victims have to see them walking around as if they had done nothing wrong. What has happened to their human rights?

The last Government started the procedure of letting them out early because of costs and this one has carried it on.

It seems that the justice system in this country has come to an all-time low. We let prisoners out early, have private companies taking over our jails when they are employing staff who are not properly trained before working in them, then they pay them peanuts so they make more profit.

How can any victim have any confidence in the justice system? How can the prisoners feel safe and be rehabilitated? Maybe we would have enough money to keep these people in prison for the full term if we did not have to pay the high expenses for all these MPs who are supposed to work for the people and keep them safe.

Initiative has led to the creation of jobs

RE: The article in The Chronicle of October 10: 'Firm Takes Advantage of Discount Rate Offer'.

Like everyone, I welcome the fact that start up shops are beginning to open in our town centres. It shows that the recovery is, at last, starting to take hold and work its way out of the south east of England and London.

However, I am surprised that the council did not give credit to the fact that these shop openings have been made possible due a £100,000 grant from central Government – inspired by TV retail guru Mary Portas – called the High Street Innovation Fund.

By the council's own figures, this initiative is now responsible for 20 new jobs in the area and is a tangible example of how the government is supporting private enterprise to lead us out of the financial crisis.

Collection fundraiser

ON behalf of the Burntwood, Cannock and Lichfield branch of the Guide Dogs for the Blind Association I would like to say thank you to the staff for their co-operation and all the people who so kindly donated to our fundraising collection held at Morrisons, Burntwood on October 13.

The total amount raised was £399.72. If anyone is interested in helping GDBA with fundraising call 01543 683937.

Offensive and out of touch

IN response to the letter from Jodie Jones, October 17, 'Access to MP at most convenient locations'.

Her comment that people's problems and complaints should not necessarily be dealt with in private by Mr Burley is offensive, presumptuous and in my view out of touch with the electorate's wish to communicate privately at all times with their MP.

Their belief and perception that people want to discuss any issues they have in a supermarket, shop or cafe is beyond belief.

I believe the reaction from the electorate for the way Mr Roden's complaint was dealt with, will be one of hostility.

The most convenient location for the public to tender their objection to Mr Burley's Laissez-Faire attitude in the way he uses market spin, degrading and making a mockery of the electorate's access to their MP will be at the ballot box.

Town's spirit lives, it's just late for tea

RE: The latest car park to arrive in Rugeley. You cannot miss it, it starts at Western Springs Road and ends in Brereton – and its free. Plus it goes the other way too.

However if that's not enough there's always Sandy Lane. Use the by-pass, I hear you say. Why not miss Rugeley altogether? I bet Tesco are glad they came into the town.

What's more, there are speed humps on Brereton Road and Armitage Road while three sets of lights have taken route while a power cable is put in.

As a cab driver in this lovely town – and I mean that, no matter how much the county council or the wooden tops in Cannock try – the spirit of the people of Rugeley will live on. But we might be late for tea.

Concerns villages will become urban sprawl

RE: Ken Lees building project. I hope Mrs Foster of Great Wyrley (Letters, October 10), isn't a born and bred local, otherwise she wouldn't want this project to go ahead.

Great Wyrley and Cheslyn Hay have always been separate villages and we want them to stay that way, not become an urban sprawl.

Cheslyn Hay is already gridlocked at times with traffic to and from the motorways. Not only will this project impact Wyrley and Cheslyn Hay, it will also affect the village of Upper Landywood, which has already virtually lost its identity.

Roadworks have town businesses up in arms

TRADERS in Rugeley are up in arms over the £500,000 transformation of a major gateway into the town.

They claim the project – to narrow a main two-lane thoroughfare to a single-lane – is 'unnecessary'.

The work is part of a bid to make the town more pedestrian friendly and will eventually allow for car-parking in the central reservation.

Taxi-driver Steven Toy called the scheme 'an unnecessary disruption'. Local councillor Mick Grocott also denounced the work, saying there were other more worthy projects in the town.

Focus

Horsefair and Wharf Road from the railway station to the town centre will be the focus of the works by Staffordshire County Council.

As well as single-lane traffic, it is intended to remove the traffic lights and replace them with roundabouts at the junctions with St Paul's Road and also Armitage Road.

Speed humps are also planned. Work is expected to go on into the New Year.

Traders have voiced concerns about the plans. Estate agent Angi Cooney, vice-president of the Rugeley Traders Association, complained they were given only two days' notice of the public consultation meeting and claimed the plans had been 'rushed through'.

Mr Toy added: "The road humps make the prospect of driving along Horsefair an unpleasant and uncomfortable one. They are not only completely unnecessary given the layout and the presence of three roundabouts in such close proximity but they also detract from the smooth-flowing philosophy behind the scheme."

Rugeley Councillor Mick Grocott next to the roadworks on the Horsefair

Councillor Grocott said: "I'm not opposed to the money being spent on the scheme in Rugeley but I've had a lot of people speak to me about the plans."

"I was down there at 9am and it was bad. I dread to think what it's like when the school run is on. I would rather the county council put parking in front of the shops instead of in the middle of the road."

"I don't think it's the right plan for what they are trying to achieve."

The county council said the aim of the scheme was to support the economic regeneration of the town centre and encourage more people to use the rail station by improving the access.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Brian Stanley feels that it's all about service. "Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done."

We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole."

Cloudy2Clear service Wolverhampton and the surrounding area and Brian is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. "The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people

I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated."

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Brian a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

If you're looking to revamp your wardrobe, accessorise your home or buy that someone special a gift then pay a visit to Cannock's newest store, Crazy Daisy. Crazy Daisy stocks a wide variety of high-end high street fashion labels with typically 50 per cent off the regular high street price. There is a magnificent range of ladies clothing, bags, jewellery, scarves and accessories. So whether you're after a glamorous outfit for that special Christmas party, or just want to treat yourself to some new additions to your wardrobe then Crazy Daisy has everything from casualwear to evening wear in sizes 6-22 and definitely worth a visit.

The store has its official opening day this Saturday so why not join the team in Cannock Shopping Centre and see if you can pick up a bargain or two? Bargain hunters may have already seen what Crazy Daisy has to offer - the store discreetly opened its doors for business a week ago, and has already had a fantastic response from shoppers ahead of the official grand opening. The team behind Crazy Daisy have been in the clothing and home retail business for more than 20 years. They pride themselves on their expertise in the industry and on offering a great deal for their customers time and time again.

All Sizes

Unlike many discount clothes retailers Crazy Daisy is very much like any other high street store - there's no rummaging through mixed rails to find the right item or design, all items are available in all sizes from 6-22 and presented as you would find in any major department store. The home and gift section has a shabby chic feel to it and you will be marvelled at the displays and extensive range of items available again to suit all pockets and tastes.

The interior of the store has been extensively fitted out to a very high standard to offer customers a relaxing shopping experience. There are stylish dressing rooms so you can try on all your potential purchases in comfort. The knowledgeable team who are all local staff have a wealth of experience all having many years experience in the clothing and home retail sectors, they are on hand and happy to help with any queries and to ensure you make the most of your shopping experience at Crazy Daisy.

Crazy Daisy is located opposite Specsavers in Cannock Shopping Centre, Cannock. Phone 01543 504121

Regal touch as play area is unveiled

'The Queen' and 'Prince William' with Councillor Frank Allen and Connor, aged nine, and Kieran Roycroft, four REGAL guests marked the opening of a play area at a Cannock housing development. Lookalikes to the Queen and the Duke of Cambridge joined residents at Monarch Park, Elizabeth Road, for the unveiling.

Some 150 homes have been rebuilt on the estate, built 60 years ago and named in honour of the Queen's coronation. The scheme is the result of a partnership between Cannock Chase Council, Lovell and Waterloo Housing Group.

The £17m redevelopment also benefited from £3.95m of investment support from the government's Homes and Communities Agency. Sixty-three of the homes are rented and were let to local people on the council's housing register. A further 36 homes were sold through shared ownership on a part-buy and part-rent basis. A further 50 homes were built for sale by Lovell.

Cannock Chase Council housing leader Frank Allen said: "I am absolutely delighted with the transformation."

The redevelopment has also provided attractive public open space, a children's play area and a newly laid road through the estate. Tuesday's community fun day offered a host of information and free activities including face-painting, seasonal crafts and baked potatoes to eat.

Hoax fire calls on rise

FIRE crews in Staffordshire received more than 200 hoax calls in six months, according to new figures.

There were 217 false reports of incidents in the county from the start of April to the end of September, up from 206 in the same period in 2012.

Fire chiefs have warned pranksters were putting lives at risk, but say the majority of hoax calls were not attended by firefighters as efforts were now made to find out whether the call was genuine before resources are sent.

Fire crews attended just 32 of the bogus reports during the six months. The worst months for hoax calls were July and August, with 43 and 42 respectively being made.

Pleasing

A report to a meeting of the fire and rescue authority's scrutiny committee states: "Although we are showing a slightly increased level of hoax calls it is pleasing to note that only a very few are actually attended by crews with just 32 calls attended out of 217.

"We work with telephone suppliers and the police in instances where hoax calls are made and we continue to run campaigns around the dangers of making hoax calls."

Head of risk reduction Glynn Luznyi said: "Hoax reports and unwanted fire signals can potentially put the lives of people who truly need assistance at risk."

Veterans in from cold to be honoured for service

VETERANS of the Second World War's Arctic campaign have been finally recognised for their bravery in ferrying vital equipment to Russia – almost 70 years on.

More than 3,000 men died in the freezing Arctic waters as they worked to keep supplies flowing through German blockades to Britain's war-time ally.

The mission to get provisions through was described by Winston Churchill as the 'worst journey in the world'.

The convoys carried tanks, planes, fuel, medicine and food to help the Soviets fight Germany on the war's Eastern Front, sailing from Scotland or Iceland, around the top of Norway and deep into the Arctic Circle.

Convoys

The precious supplies were carried by around 1,400 merchant ships, escorted by the Royal Navy, Royal Canadian Navy and the U.S. Navy.

In all, 78 convoys sailed between August 1941 and May 1945, often coming under attack from German submarines, bombers and ships.

Last year, the Government finally agreed to issue the Arctic Star campaign medal for those who served on the perilous convoys.

Now, 17 Staffordshire survivors have been honoured at a ceremony in Stafford's County buildings.

The Lord Lieutenant of Staffordshire, Ian Dudson, praised the veterans for their fortitude against the odds before presenting them with certificates commemorating their brave deeds.

He told the recipients: "It's been an honour to have you here."

One of those honoured was wireless

Wireless operator Edward Hancox, aged 89, from Burntwood, who was among those to receive an Arctic Star at the county buildings in Stafford

Edward Hancox, aged 89, of Burntwood. He said: "Nothing worries you when you're young – but looking back, I count myself lucky to have survived the war."

Landings

"After serving in the convoys, I was sent to North Africa and took part in the landings there and at Syracuse in Sicily, then on to Malta where I volunteered for submarines."

"I got blown up at one point. There was a hole in my back which they patched up."

"These days, I would have been sent home."

Others honoured were Frank Wallis, aged 91, of Croxton, near Eccleshall, Edward Billingham 89, of Brewood, Ernest Yates, also 89, of Stafford and 90-year-old Donald Gray of Eccleshall.

Three late servicemen, Frank Fox, of Stafford, Kenneth Key, of Eccleshall, and Thomas Simm, of Stone, were represented by members of their family.

Hollyoaks star lines up for centre's panto

SOAP star Darren Langford is looking forward to a season of panto puns at Cannock's Prince of Wales Centre.

The actor, best known for playing the mentally disabled character Spencer Gray in the long-running Channel 4 soap, takes on the role of the Emperor of China in Aladdin at the Church Street venue.

As the cast met up in town for a costume fitting, the star spoke of a change of heart when it came to pantomime.

"When I was young I was taken to pantos at the local working men's clubs and I loved them but as an actor I never thought of performing in them," he said.

"But I did my first four years ago and now I couldn't imagine not doing a panto at Christmas."

The cast will include 11 local youngsters from Rugeley-based Studio 5 Stage School who started rehearsing for their song and dance routines last month.

Aladdin runs for eight days from December 22-30 with matinees every day except Christmas Day, plus four evening shows. Call the box office on 01543 578762 for more.

Theatre manager Richard Kay said: "We normally launched the panto on Christmas Eve and finished in the new year but people wanted more shows this side of Christmas so we have responded."

Developer to fight on in bid for 140 homes

A DEVELOPER will appeal to government planning chiefs after proposals for more than 140 homes between Cheslyn Hay and Great Wyrley were rejected.

Campaigners have been fighting the scheme on green belt land amid concerns about increased traffic, pressure on schools and the impact on wildlife.

The plans to build 141 homes off Landywood Lane were turned down by South Staffordshire Council.

Developer Ken Lees, of KGL Estates, said he would now take the case to the planning inspectorate.

It is proposed to build 141 houses, including 56 affordable homes. The scheme also provides for a park-and-ride scheme to serve the railway station, a health centre, care home and allotments.

More than 2,000 letters of objection have been submitted.

Mr Lees said he was willing to discuss with residents their concerns, adding he had not been invited to public consultation or parish council meetings. He said: "We think we have put forward a good application."

Mr Lees said he had

by Adam Burling

expected the application to be refused as it was on green belt land and had already prepared for what to do next.

"Anyone that puts in an application for green belt land usually has to go to the planning inspectorate, which is what we will do now," he said.

• In article in the Express & Star on August 28 and Chronicle on August 29, we reported claims that Mr Lees donated a plot of land to South Staffordshire Council for a cemetery as a 'sweetener' to get his plans through, relating to an application to build 140 homes on adjoining land. We accept this was not the case and apologise for any distress caused to Mr Lees or his family.

“Who will pick up the bill for your Funeral?”

Don't leave your loved ones the worry...

...Leave them the memories.

At the worst possible time, your loved ones could be left with the financial burden and worry of paying for your funeral. And recent reports have shown the cost is rising.

Here at George Stacey we can replace that worry with a simple and straightforward, low cost monthly funeral plan.

- A thoughtful and caring thing to do
- One less thing for your loved ones to worry about
- You decide what's right for you
- Advance planning ensures your wishes are respected
- Anyone over 18 years of age can take out a plan, no maximum age limit or medical examination
- A Funeral Plan created by you by your local independent funeral director

Salon is waxing lyrical about fundraising bid

MALE customers are being asked to 'man up' for a waxing this weekend. Tinkerbells nail and beauty salon in Heath Hayes is raising money for Children In Need and on Saturday, for £5, men can have their legs, back or chest waxed in aid of the cause.

The ladies are not being left out as the Hednesford Road salon is holding a taster day tomorrow (Friday) where treatments such as mini-facials, back exfoliation, a basic back massage or nail or toe painting cost a fiver.

In addition, 10 per cent of every treatment carried out on the day will go towards Children In Need. Call the salon on 01543 270711 for more details.

Runner beats disease and raises funds for research

A HEDNESFORD man who overcame meningitis celebrated by raising more than £350 for the cause in the Birmingham Half Marathon.

Callum McLeish raised more than £350 for the Meningitis Research Foundation by pounding the streets of the second city on October 20.

Callum McLeish after running the half marathon

As well beating the viral disease, Callum also ran to celebrate turning 40.

He said: "I contracted meningococcal group B meningitis and septicaemia in December 2007. Initially I thought I was suffering with flu and had the same type of symptoms, aches, shivering and general fatigue, but my mum popped in to see me and noticed a black mark on my leg and asked whether I had taken a knock during football at the weekend.

"When I replied no she immediately became concerned that it was blood poisoning and ushered me into her car.

Support

"This was the last thing I remember as I lost consciousness and was woken out of a medically induced coma four days later, after which I spent a further four days in Stafford Hospital."

Callum is also taking part in the Great Manchester Run next May, adding it was his chance "to support research into a disease which so nearly took my life".

"The money raised will help to invest in prevention against this terrible disease."

Chris Head, chief executive of MRF, said: "We rely on voluntary donations to fund our vital work into the prevention, detection and treatment of meningitis and septicaemia and supporting those affected."

"Every penny raised will make a huge difference."

Ramble on Chase

CHASE & District Group Ramblers step out on a seven-mile Cannock Chase walk this weekend to include Sherbrook Valley and Shugborough. Departure time is 9am on Sunday, from Hednesford rail station car park, Anglesey Street.

Medium Holbrook in appearance at hotel

CLAIRAUDIENT medium Stephen Holbrook brings his 2013 tour to Cannock later this month. Holbrook, who claims to hear spirits rather than see them, appears at the Ramada Hotel, Bridgtown on Tuesday, November 19.

Appearing with him will be psychic artist Sandy Ingham, with whom he works on a regular basis. She draws the spirits Holbrook is talking to.

Over the years, Holbrook has raised more than £50,000 for a hospice in Wakefield and £5,000 for MacMillan Support. His current total for PACT, which helps terminally ill children across the UK - stands at more than £18,000.

Price for the Ramada night, which starts at 7.30pm, is £17. To book, call 01977 667752.

BUDDING photographers still have time to submit their entries for the chance to win a camera.

These stunning shots of the Chase landscape are among the entries so far in a photographic competition launched by Specsavers.

The opticians, which has a branch in both Cannock and Rugeley, has teamed up with The Chronicle to run the competition, with a Pentax Optio WG-2 camera up for grabs.

It is the first photography competition run by the opticians and a pair of designer sunglasses, worth £125 each, are also offered for two runners-up.

Photographers are asked to capture the essence of the Chase, whether it be the sun shining on a local landmark or capturing the local hustle and bustle.

Digital

The closing date for entries is next Thursday, November 7 before a panel of judges, including store directors Minal Naik and Martin Shaw, choose the Cannock and Rugeley Specsavers Photographer of The Year 2013

Digital photos can be e-mailed to specsavers@targetgroup.co.uk entitled 'photo competition'.

All email entries must include a name, age, address, phone number and details of where the photo was taken.

These four entries come from Jackie Barratt, entitled Autumn by the River Trent, at Wolseley, June Scrimgeour, who took the shot of the deer on Cannock Chase, Andrew Cowley, with his picture of Rugeley Power Station and Leah Rose of Rugeley, a photography student who captured the Chase on a cold winter's day.

Drumming up support for church boiler plea

A BAND is tuning up for a concert to raise funds for a church boiler.

The Great Wyrley Showband is performing at the Salem Methodist Church in Hiff Street, Cheslyn Hay. Churchgoers are trying to raise £15,000 to repair the boiler. Within two months of the appeal being launched, some £1,600 has already been raised.

Church steward Rob Perks said the boiler was more than 30 years old and it was unsure how long it would last. Money from the concert will go to general church funds, but will be diverted to the boiler appeal in case of any emergency.

Mr Perks said: "It's only down to the auspices of a church member who used to be in the heating business that the boiler has not yet expired," he said. "We hope to keep it going through the winter and hope to raise enough money in the meantime."

"The community has really rallied around previous appeals and we are confident this will be the case again."

Tickets

The concert takes place on Saturday, November 16 and will be the band's third date at the church in the last five years.

Tickets are £5 and available from Mr Perks on 01922 414458 or from the Cedar Tree Christian drop-in centre in Low Street, Cheslyn Hay.

A fundraising Christmas fair is also taking place at the church on Saturday, November 30.

Sporty riders in saddle for scenic ride

Cyclists at the start of the Cannock Chase Sportive, a RideIt! event organised by Evans Cycles

AROUND 300 cyclists saddled up for a race over Cannock Chase.

The Evans Ride It! Sportive consisted of three different distances of up to 86 miles with staggered start times.

The route looped round the Chase itself, up onto the scenic roads, over the River Trent and around Blithfield reservoir, offering steep climbs and muddy weather to test the more experienced riders in the longer distances. Organised by Evans Cycles in Hednesford, it started and ended at the Tackeroo campsite, off Penkridge Bank Road.

First home was Ismail Ahmed in just over three hours over the medium 56-mile distance. First past the post over the longer journey was Kevin Aird in six hours and three minutes.

Park overhaul approved

THE £3 million overhaul of Hednesford Park has been given the green light after Sport England withdrew its objection to the scheme.

The regulatory body had objected to the loss of a full-size football pitch and a bowling green at Hednesford Park. But after urgent talks with Cannock Chase Council, Sport England bosses decided not to pursue their opposition.

Cannock Chase Council's planning committee approved the scheme last week. Hednesford Park, in Victoria Street, is being transformed over three years, subject to public consultation. Some of the work has already been completed.

Under the plans, the pavilion will be modernised, a community room created and a cafe built.

Equipment

The games area is being replaced with skate park, teen shelter and kick-about area all provided as well as additional car parking. The children's play area will also be relocated and the equipment updated.

One of the three adult pitches will go, to be replaced by a junior or two mini-soccer pitches. One of the two bowling greens will also be lost.

Sport England asked the council to justify the loss of the green but following crunch talks, chiefs accepted that neither had been used since 2009.

Members approved the scheme subject to conditions and further talks. Councillor Maureen Freeman said: "This application was funded by the National Lottery and was the highest amount to be given towards such facilities. It is a massive."

Tales told of ghosts in cockpit

Insightful talk about war widows' letters

BURNTWOOD WI

THE October meeting was members' night when the committee have an evening off and a group of members take over the running.

Following the usual business, the ladies listened to the speaker Geoffrey Dryland whose talk was titled "Ghosts in the Cockpit".

He gave brief history of his career and his experiences as a commercial pilot.

He went on to tell of his encounters trying to find the grave of his Uncle Dougie who had died in the war and was buried in Arnhem. After visiting an airfield there Geoffrey experienced strange feelings. This happened on two occasions.

There were other incidents that Geoffrey had felt he had a guardian angel with him that saved him from fatal accidents. He believed this to be his uncle.

Geoffrey ended by showing a water colour picture he had painted of his uncle from a photograph he had. Members then enjoyed a plated supper prepared by the members' committee.

Thanks were received from Bryn Griffiths, son of secretary Judith, for sponsoring him on a cycle ride around London, raising £850 for the National Autistic Society.

The Macmillan coffee morning organised by Wendy Dunn raised £1,931.

The WI Choir will sing at the Christ Church Christmas fair at the Memorial Hall on November 9.

CANNOCK SOROPTIMISTS

"SOLDIERING On - Letters from War Widows" was the title of the talk from club member Dr Janis Lomas.

Janis is an historian, specialising in the history of war widows in the UK.

The talk was both insightful and emotional, using extracts from war widows' letters to demonstrate the hardship they faced and the way they were treated.

In 1971 Iris Strange helped to set up the War Widows Association. After 19 years she saw their campaigning come to fruition when war widows were granted vastly increased pensions.

Now women who suffer because their husbands are killed at war or badly injured while fighting are treated much more fairly.

Team President Lakhwinder Thompson thanked Janis for her presentation.

Quiz fundraiser coming up

SPEAKERS at the October meeting were Mr and Mrs Griffiths from the Lichfield Heritage Centre.

Members were told that the centre had become a major tourist attraction, where visitors are invited to walk through 2,000 years of Lichfield's history.

The centre is the home of the Lichfield Heritage Collection which features more than 6,000 photographs, negatives, newspaper reports and other memorabilia from the past 150 years.

There are also fine examples of city, regimental and church silver.

The WI is holding a quiz night, which is open to the public, on Friday, November 15, 7.30pm start. It will be held at St Joseph's & Ethelreda Community Centre, Heron Street, Rugeley.

Teams of four can take part at £2 each. Proceeds will go to CASS Young Carers Service and the WI. There will be a raffle, refreshments and a bar.

Speaker on November 13 will be Dr Michael Jones on 'Mistletoe - Fact or Fiction'.

Loften-Anne Sheppard, left, celebrates the fashion factory first birthday with Lucy Lowbridge, Gail Knight, deputy manager Nick Barnfield and Fleur Meacham, right

A MAJOR fashion store has celebrated its first year of trading since a relaunch saved 30 jobs.

Staff at Fashion Factory in Vine Lane, Cannock dressed in 'onesies' to mark one year since the store resumed trading.

The store had been in the town for 18 years until last summer it closed its doors. However, it was resurrected by businessman Philip Yates, who re-employed many of those who lost their jobs.

There was a party mood in the store on Saturday, one year on from reopening its doors. Deputy manager Nick Barnfield said the business was doing well.

He said: "One year on and we are going from strength to strength. We are really pleased with how things are going and felt it was appropriate to mark our first year back open."

Previous owner Michael Edwards said he was forced to close the store because it was heavily losing trade to the internet.

Mr Barnfield added: "It was really great to celebrate. We all looked ridiculous in our onesies. We had people as animals, a dragon, and lots of fluff. The customers loved it and it was a bit of fun."

Members from Wyrley Juniors Football Club were in store helping collect money for the The Hibbs Lupus Trust.

False benefits spent on trip to Disneyland

A MOTHER-OF-TWO illegally claimed more than £37,000 in benefits and spent some of her handouts on holidays, including a trip to Disneyland Paris, a judge heard.

Melissa Carson failed to tell the authorities she had moved in with her partner and they were living together as husband and wife, Stafford Crown Court was told.

But for nearly two-and-a-half years, Carson carried on claiming benefits, including income support and housing benefit.

Miss Sophie Lomas, prosecuting, said the amount overpaid to 30-year-old Carson was £37,879.

Carson, of Emmanuel Way, Burntwood, admitted two charges of failing to notify a change in circumstances and was given a 26-week jail sentence suspended for a year.

Recorder Mr Adam Feast told her: "I wonder how your children would fare if you were sent to prison today?"

"Someone who, in effect, steals nearly £38,000, many people would think I should send to prison," he added.

Miss Lomas said Carson was questioned after the Department for Works and Pensions received evidence she was living with someone.

She admitted she had moved in with her partner, Andrew Timms, in 2009, initially on a temporary basis, but then permanently.

They had made inquiries about sorting out the benefits situation but did not pursue it, the court heard.

The benefits money had been spent on everyday items but there were also holidays, including a visit to Disneyland Paris.

Monthly Sappers meeting

THE Cannock branch of the Royal Engineers Association meets on Tuesday, November 5 at 8pm at the Drill Hall, Walsall Road, Bridgton. The meeting will be preceded by the Annual Remembrance Parade in the village on Sunday, November 3. The parade will form up at 10am at Park Street/Union Street. All Sappers can attend both events, while the public are welcome to the Parade. Further information from the branch secretary on 01543 423319.

NEWS

Lilly shows quick First Aid response

Judy Oughton, Burntwood Badger Unit manager, Lilly Hughes, Carol Trigg Specialist and her guide dog Flora

A NINE-year-old St John Ambulance cadet put her First Aid skills into practice when a lady fell over in a city centre. Lilly Hughes was described as a credit to her community after rushing to the aid of the woman in Lichfield's Market Square on October 12.

Carol Trigg, a qualified St John First Aider, was collecting for Guide Dogs, but put her collecting tin down to attend, along with her own assistance dog Flora, to the lady lying in the road. Lilly, a Badger and a fellow member of the Burntwood St John Unit, was also on the scene, having been at the optician's for an eye test.

Carol and Lilly worked together to care for the lady, making her comfortable and covering her with a blanket, treating her for shock while waiting for the ambulance.

The youngster, a Year Five pupil at St Joseph's & St Theresa's Primary School in Burntwood, was immediately praised for her actions. Carol said: "Lilly was very mature and a credit to herself and the St John Ambulance Badgers."

"At no point did she panic and this is an indication of the level of training that she has undergone which allowed her to put her training into practice."

Complaint by worker over cuts leads to suspension

A SENIOR worker has been suspended after writing to county councillors to complain about a proposed move to cut the authority's consumer advice service.

Adviser Anne Beer, who works for Staffordshire County Council, was disciplined after it was found she had written to all 62 councillors asking them to help stop 'this travesty'.

Mrs Beer, aged 63, who in 2010 was awarded an MBE for 20 years' work with trading standards, described the threat to the service as 'the unkindest cut of all'.

Helpline

She claimed that in the past financial year her team had secured more than £200,000 in refunds, repairs or replacements for vulnerable adults who had been 'ripped off' by unscrupulous dealers.

She also said the council's consumer advice helpline, which has escaped the axe, was unable to resolve problems of this nature and that Citizens Advice Bureaux were struggling with their existing workloads.

The department, staffed by four full-time workers, is earmarked to be cut in January. Affected staff will be offered other roles within the department or the wider county council.

Labour's opposition group leader is challenging the proposal. Councillor John Taylor said: "This is no way to run a chip shop, let alone a £1 billion organisation."

"The plans to end this important service have not been scrutinised by councillors."

Cannock County councillor George Adamson said the unit provided a valuable service for people unable to fight for themselves.

Councillor Mike Lawrence, the cabinet member for communities, declined to comment on Mrs Beer's case but argued that the proposed cut was part of a continual review of services as budgets were being reduced.

He said: "This review has followed the appropriate decision-making process including scrutiny and an employee consultation is currently under way."

The county council itself has declined to comment on Mrs Beer's situation.

Staffordshire officers on Hillsborough inquiry

OFFICERS from Staffordshire Police are helping with the inquiry into the Hillsborough disaster, it has emerged. Ninety-six Liverpool supporters died in the tragedy in the 1989 FA Cup semi-final which sparked the biggest police corruption inquiry ever mounted in England and Wales. Two Staffordshire officers have been seconded to work on the investigation - called Operation Resolve - full-time. The Home Office is understood to be covering their wages while they are away from the county's force. The Independent Police Complaints Commission's investigation is looking into police actions at the ground on that fateful day.

Shoppers to vote for the recipient of sport award

SHOPPERS in Cannock are being asked to determine which of three hopefuls will be crowned Young Sports Star.

Adam Withington, Alfie White and Elizabeth Bradbury have all been shortlisted for the Cannock Shopping Centre prize as part of its Star Awards.

The public is now being asked to vote for their favourite Young Sports Star. The winner will receive an engraved Star Award as well as a prize from Cannock Shopping Centre.

The top three are Adam Withington, who earlier this year became Cannock's first eight-year-old to get a drag racing licence.

He hopes to race in the UK Junior Stock Dragster Championship in scaled down drag cars with a tuned lawnmower engine.

Year Six pupil Alfie White is a 28-handicap golfer who has won numerous trophies. He has been playing golf from an early age and is a member at Chase Golf Club.

Decision
Elizabeth Bradbury, a Year 10 student, has demonstrated extraordinary expertise in air rifle shooting. She started just over a year ago and has recently been given the opportunity to represent her country in future national and international competitions.

Natal Chapman, Cannock Shopping Centre manager, said: "It is such a hard decision so I encourage all of our shoppers to vote."

Shoppers have until Sunday, November 10 to decide. Voting forms are available in Kiss & Make up, Farmfoods, Minister Pharmacy, Body Care, Spec-savers, JD Sports, New Look, Argos.

Vehicles seized
MORE than 1,000 vehicles have been seized in a crack-down on car insurance dodgers in Staffordshire. Cars Behind Bars was launched by Staffordshire's Police and Crime Commissioner Matthew Ellis less than six months ago.

CHASE MP Aidan Burley is encouraging people to have flu vaccinations. Pregnant women, the elderly and people with health conditions such as severe asthma, chest or heart complaints and diabetes are eligible for a free vaccination.

The Conservative MP said: "With winter just around the corner, that unfortunately means flu season is fast approaching."

"Flu represents one of the greatest threats to public health, and immunisation remains the best way to protect against the potential serious harm it can cause," he added.

For the first time this year, the Government is also offering flu immunisation in the form of a nasal spray for children aged two and three.

Lecturer plays big part in Wolves boys' success

Jake Cassidy

Anthony Forde

Jack Price

Liam McAlinden

Zeli Ismail

A LECTURER from South Staffordshire College has played a major part in the breakthrough of several Wolves academy players into the first team.

With Kenny Jackett's side riding high in League 1, no fewer than 10 members of the first team squad have come through the club's scholarship programme.

Jamie Chapman can claim a significant role in the programme's success. Working with the young footballers towards their Level 3 BTEC Diploma in Sport, he delivers a mix of academic teaching, coaching skills and nutritional advice, in support of the club's own nutritionist. His work has helped the young players gain experience for their own Level 2 coaching qualification.

Nick Loftus is the education and welfare officer based at the Wolves Compton Park training ground who oversees the apprenticeship in sport-excellence NVQ programme and is also team manager for both Wolverhampton Schools and West Midlands Schools FA. He said: 'Jamie and his colleagues at South Staffordshire College have been working with us since we first approached them five seasons ago. "There is no doubt that his input on fitness, training and a healthy diet have contributed to the progress of our players."

Bench

Eight of the current first team squad are alumni of the South Staffordshire College course; Anthony Forde, Liam McAlinden, Jack, Price, Ethan Ebanks Landell, Zeli Ismail, Jake Cassidy and Aaron McCarey have between them made a number of first team appearances. Current and more recent learners Ibrahim Keita and Jon Platt have been on the first team bench.

Reflecting on his achievements as a student, winger Forde said: "The tutors at South Staffordshire College were very good."

Jamie and David offered me lots of support and showed both understanding and encouragement to me as I was making my breakthrough into the first team at Wolves.

"I am pleased to successfully complete my qualification (Extended National Diploma) and it has inspired me to continue my studies now that I am a full-time professional player."

Chapman took a degree in sports science locally before moving on to South Staffordshire College - which has campuses in Cannock, Lichfield, Penkridge and Tamworth - to complete his Postgraduate Certificate in Education.

The academy sides are playing in the top flight at both under-18 and under-21 age groups against the likes of Manchester United and the first team is currently among the favourites for promotion to the Championship.

"All these young players are well aware of the proud traditions of the club and to have produced such a fine crop of first teamers from within our own ranks is a huge endorsement of the programme," said Chapman.

"At South Staffordshire College we are very proud of our contribution towards that."

REVIEW

Rollers fans Give a Little Love on a Saturday Night

Les McKeown on stage with his legendary Bay City Rollers at the Prince of Wales Centre

Les McKeown with the Legendary Bay City Rollers, Prince of Wales Centre, Cannock

THE crowd lapped it up as Les McKeown took to the stage with his band The Legendary Bay City Rollers.

The Scottish pop group – headed up by long-time Roller and only original member McKeown – gave a lively performance at Cannock's Prince of Wales Theatre to some 400 tartan-clad fans.

Despite his well-documented battle with drink, Edinburgh-born heart-throb McKeown – now aged 57 – sang each song with energy and enthusiasm, his voice never faltering.

The 70s chart-toppers played a variety of hits during their 90-minute set, including Keep on Dancing, My Teenage Heart, Be My Baby, Give a Little Love and Saturday Night. The five-piece also gave the audience a taste of their newest material, to be released on a new album next year. Saturday evening was a night of sheer nostalgia for the band and its adoring fans – many of whom got into the mood by digging out their old tartan dresses and tartan-trimmed suits.

Scarves

One woman even showed her support by wearing a tartan skirt teamed up with tartan tights and a huge tartan rosette showing a picture of members from the original line-up.

The audience sang along with every song, dancing and swaying their arms and tartan scarves once again to one of Scotland's most famous exports.

Making the most of their dedicated audience, the band played a great acoustic version of Ain't it Strange which saw McKeown enter into a duet with the crowds who dutifully knew every last lyric.

The group also paid tribute to late musician and Monkees singer Davy Jones, who died last year, with a rendition of Daydream Believer.

There was even room in the glittering playlist for a song called The Bump, which in the 70s triggered off a controversial dance craze.

The band's first UK number one, Bye Bye Baby, rounded off the evening – with one over-zealous fan leaping up on stage and hugging Les McKeown before being made to return to her seat.

MEMORY LANE

May 1963: The annual reunion of the 5th and 7th battalions of the South Staffordshire Regiment at Walsall Drill Hall. Three chums from the 5th, from left, Bert Sanders, John Woodcock and Frank Barker, share a few memories

South Staffs led heroic struggle for the Somme

by Carl Chinn

FOR SO many of us, our thoughts of the First World War are dominated by water-sodden and dirty trenches, heroic yet unsuccessful attacks across the mud of no man's land, and bloody losses of life in futile battles ordered by incompetent and insensitive generals.

In particular, the terrible first day of the Somme looms large in our national and collective consciousness about the horrors of the Great War.

Among those who went 'over the top' on July 1, 1916 were the men of the 1st Battalion the South Staffordshire Regiment. Territorials, they were part of the 137th Staffordshire Brigade, which included two battalions each from North and South Staffordshire. It belonged to the 46th (North Midland) Division, one of the 14 peace-time divisions of the Territorial Force.

The 5th South Staffordshire Regiment had its headquarters and four companies at Walsall, with other companies at Bloxwich, Hednesford, Handsworth and Wednesbury.

The 6th battalion was based in Wolverhampton, where it had three companies, with others in Willenhall, Sedgley, Darlaston, Bilston and Tettenhall. Like all Territorial soldiers, the men of the 46th North Midland Division were mobilised when war was declared on August 4, 1914.

Its 18,000 infantrymen, gunners, engineers, and medics then trained strenuously until early March 1915 when they were shipped to France – thus becoming the first complete Territorial Division to take the field. By now, the two Staffordshire battalions had become the 1/5th and 1/6th and on the first day of the Somme, they joined the 56th (London Division) to attack Gommecourt, an enemy salient that bulged out from the German lines into no man's land. This assault was a diversion to draw German troops away from Serre to the south. The

October 14, 1965: Comrades from 1/5th South Staffordshire Regiment meet at Wolverhampton's Bradmore Hotel to mark the 50th anniversary of the attack on the Hohenzollern Redoubt two divisions attacked to the north and south of the heavily fortified village and aimed to link up behind it – thus cutting off the Germans. The plan failed. After the Great War, a committee of the officers of the 1/6th wrote up the battalion's war history.

At the time, even the commanding officer, Lieutenant J H Thursfield, was unaware of the reasons for the attack. At 6.25am an intense British bombardment began, but "the enemy replied vigorously, both with his field guns and howitzers, and revealed the true strength of his artillery."

One of these machine guns was in the north-west corner of Gommecourt Village and could not be silenced and it "must have been responsible for a large number of the casualties in the advance".

Shortly before 7.30 the attack was launched, but "the enemy's fire was intense, and from the very start casualties were heavy. On reaching the wire, men looked in vain for the openings they had expected. It had been cut by our artillery, but no guns could remove it, and it remained in such masses as effectually to prevent a passage".

However, one gap had been made and some of D Company "managed to gain a footing in the enemy's front line, but were soon outnumbered and fell". The bombers under Lieutenant Flaxman also made for the gap but the wire "prevented them from getting to grips, and they were shot down in the open".

On the right flank C Company engaged the enemy "but they could make no headway and suffered heavily. For the rest, those men who passed through the barrages and escaped the machine gun fire could make no progress past the enemy's wire." As for A and B Companies, they found no gaps.

Casualties were severe. Out of the total of 239 in the battalion, most occurred within a few minutes of the beginning of the attack. As for the 1/5th South Staffs, that battalion had also suffered high casualties, with 219 men killed or wounded.

The Battle of the Somme was not the first action that 1/5th and 1/6th had been involved in. Along with the rest of the 46th North Midland Division they had taken part in the Battle of Loos, when on October 15, 1915 they had attacked the Hohenzollern Redoubt.

Trenches

This was a most forbidding fortification that was linked to the German lines behind it by two well-protected trenches called Little Willie and Big Willie. The 1/5th and 1/6th South Staffordshire Regiment were enjoined to capture Big Willie and then move on to take a defensive site called Fosse 8, a mine at the base of a slagheap.

According to James P Jones in his History of the South Staffordshire Regiment (1923), as soon as the South Staffs attacked they "came under a deadly cross-fire from three sides. With a rush they captured the main trench, but owing to heavy machine gun fire swift progress was impossible."

Resolutely the South Staffs battled along Big Willie and "far into the night this soldiers' battle continued, for it had become an affair of individual gallantry and endurance. Here, for three days, they fought and endured like the heroes of old, until they were relieved by the 2nd Guards Brigade". Casualties were heavy. The 1/5 and 1/6th had lost 31 officers while 695 other ranks had been killed, wounded or were missing.

NEWS

Neighbours given a taste of living beside HS2 route

Jill Port from Kings Bromley with a map of the proposed route during consultation on the HS2 link

VISITORS to a HS2 consultation event could study huge maps, countless information boards and a scale model.

Hi-tech sound booths were also available for people to listen to the predicted noise levels from the high-speed link.

The presentation in Armitage, near Rugeley, was a chance for villagers to find out the hard realities of what life might be like living beside the controversial £42.6bn line.

The route will cut through many miles of Staffordshire countryside, affecting villages including Great Haywood, Ingestre, Marston, and Swynnerton as it passes from Lichfield, past Stafford and up towards Stone on its way to Manchester. The latest consultations got under way last month. Phase Two will have huge consequences for Jill and Dale Port whose home at Far End Cottage, Kings Bromley, is just 150 metres from the proposed route.

Mr Port, a 64-year-old refrigerator engineer, had been planning to retire soon and sell up. "We're very upset," he said.

Investments

"We bought the house eight years ago as an investment with a view to selling it after I retire next year and downsizing to become mortgage-free but this will affect the market value of our property and we won't be able to do that anymore."

Wife Jill, 51, said: "It's the uncertainty. Property has always been one of the safest investments but it hasn't worked out that way."

Businesswoman Julia Allsopp, 42, of Bromley Hayes, Riley Hill, objects to the project on several fronts.

"On a general level, I'm against the cost and environmental impact of the scheme."

"But I also have personal objections as my home is really close to where the line is due to go."

IT consultant Donovan Artz, of Handsacre, had mixed feelings.

"I acknowledge that we need to do something about the infrastructure in this country and move the economy on but I also understand people's concerns about the project."

"Personally the route is close to the canals and crosses many of the roads I use as a long-distance runner."

What's On!

Ivy League back for 60s night out

THE Ivy League are back at the Prince of Wales Centre for a 60s/70s night out this month – and will be joined by Paper Lace.

Over the last 10 years, the 60s/70s Night Out has entertained thousands of music fans with its selection of artists from the two decades.

The tradition has continued into 2013 with the Ivy League, regulars on the circuit, joined by the Nottingham-based quartet.

On their first Night Out tour, Paper Lace are back together with original members Phil Wright and Cliff Fish.

A fantastic show of hit records, like Billy Don't Be A Hero, The Night Chicago Died, Tossing and Turning and Funny How Love Can Be, it takes place on Sunday, November 10, from 7.30pm with tickets priced at £20.

Call the box office on 01543 578762 to book.

Group returns to put on Oklahoma!

FOLLOWING a successful production of The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe, Chads Moor Choral Society return to the Prince of Wales Centre next week.

This time, the cast performs the Rodgers & Hammerstein classic Oklahoma! It takes the stage at the Church Street theatre from Wednesday to Saturday, November 6 to 9 at 7.30pm each night.

For ticket details, call the box office on 01543 578762.

Stars are Outen and about in Grand's anniversary year

Meet Union J at Merry Hill

POPULAR boy band Union J are the headline act for this year's highly-anticipated Christmas lights switch on at Westfield Merry Hill.

The boys will arrive at the centre on Friday, November 15.

The Chronicle is teaming up with Merry Hill to give one lucky reader and their friend the chance to meet the X Factor favourites. As well as getting up close and personal with the famous four, the winner will receive a £100 gift card to splash out with at any of the centre's 200 plus stores.

Popular

Huge crowds are expected to turn out to enjoy Union J's performance, which will see them treat fans to tunes including top ten hit Carry You, before they begin their UK tour.

Rylan, who found fame on X Factor and has since presented several popular TV shows, will be adding to the festivities with his own performance.

Up-and-coming band R3 Action and singer Lauren Wright will warm up the crowds and Free Radio will be hosting the event to keep everyone entertained with games and giveaways. Tickets cost £1 each with proceeds going to Help Harry Help

Union J will be providing their fans with an early festive treat at Merry Hill

Others, the centre's charity this year.

Tickets will be allocated on a first-come-first-served basis, and can be purchased from the concierge desk. The event is from 5pm-7pm with a fireworks display ending festivities with a bang. For your chance to win tell us on which TV talent show Union

J found fame. Send your answer with name, address and telephone number to Union J Competition, Chronicle Series (Editorial), 51-53 Queen Street, Wolverhampton, WV1 1ES. Closing date November 7. No cash alternative. Usual rules apply. Editor's decision is final.

A STAR-STUDDED programme is coming to Wolverhampton's Grand Theatre to mark the venue's 120th anniversary next year.

Among the high-profile names scheduled to appear in West End and Strictly Come Dancing star Denise Van Outen, who will perform her new one-woman play, Some Girl I Used to Know.

The show – co-written by Terry Ronald with musical supervision by Kylie Minogue's long-term musical collaborator Steve Anderson – will run at the theatre from February 20 to 22 as part of an 11-date national tour that includes Birmingham New Alexandra Theatre from February 10 to 12.

Other 2014 musical highlights at the Grand include the foot-stomping 80s dance classic Fame, which will arrive in March, and rock 'n' roll show Buddy: The Buddy Holly Story in May.

Emmerdale heart-throb Ben Freeman will become 'The Fonz' in Garry Marshall's musical hit Happy Days. The show, which will run from June 9 to 14, also stars former Sugababe Heidi Range as Pinky Tuscadero and 80s pop-icon Cheryl Baker as Mrs Cunningham.

Bafta-nominated actor Robert Powell, who took the title role in Jesus of Nazareth back in 1977, will play Belgian detective Poirot in a staging of Agatha Christie's Black Coffee from February 3 to 8. Brookside actor John McArdle joins the cast of Damian Cruden's new adaptation of mining village comedy Brassed Off from April 8 to 12.

Peter Cutchie, the theatre's chief executive, said: "Next year marks 120 years of the Grand Theatre in Wolverhampton and a landmark year for the venue, something which I hope is reflected in the diversity and vibrancy of our 2014 programme."

Sounds of Karen Carpenter relived

THE much-missed sounds of Karen Carpenter will be recreated at the Prince of Wales Centre this weekend.

It is 30 years since the singer died, leaving behind not only golden memories but also a catalogue of hit songs, like Only Yesterday, Close To You, Yesterday Once More and Top of the World.

The stunning Voice of the Heart show, led by the outstanding Carol Gordon, celebrates the music of The Carpenters and promises to be a night to remember.

Accompanied by the brilliant Blue Jeans Band and singers, Carol's amazing vocals are guaranteed to lead everyone through a magical journey.

Sunday's show (November 3), starts at 7.30pm at the Church Street theatre. Tickets are £8, or £17 concessions and available from the box office on 01543 578762.

Leading acts get tribute treatment

WHITESNAKE, The Eagles, Beautiful South, Led Zeppelin, Pink and Jessie J are all being given the tribute treatment at a Hednesford music venue.

November's month of tribute acts at the Tackeroo in Bracken Close, Brindley Heath, start with Whitesnake on Saturday.

All gigs start at 9pm and are priced at £5, except for a Led Zeppelin tribute on November 15 which costs £6.

For dates of all gigs, call the Tackeroo on 01543 423124.

Trevor Eve (right)

Waking the Dead

Drama, 9pm
This modern classic stars Trevor Eve as Detective Superintendent Peter Boyd. Peter Boyd is a troubled and volatile police officer who's an expert at closing cold cases. Boyd heads up the Cold Case team, a crack squad of police investigators who reopen unsolved murder cases, using new technology to re-examine evidence that hopefully will lead to the killer. New evidence comes to the light in the case of Annie Keel, a woman who tried and convicted twenty-five years ago of a double murder, in which both her husband and neighbour's son were killed in extreme circumstances.

Niamh Cusack

Catherine Cookson's The Secret Drama, 9pm

Catherine Cookson's Colour Blind is a gritty period drama set during World War I from the pen of the best-selling author. When Bridget McQueen's (Niamh Cusack) family discover that she is returning to Newcastle with her new husband they are delighted, until they discover that Bridget's new man is black. When they have a child, Rose Angela, they are ostracised from many. As Rose Angela grows up, she too discovers that society can be an unforgiving place, and is torn between two men who both declare their love for her. Niamh Cusack and Art Malik star.

Film Choices

MONDAY

Judge Dredd, Channel 5, 11pm

A law enforcer in a post-apocalyptic city is framed for a series of crimes committed by a fugitive who shares his DNA. He escapes from a prison transport and returns to hunt down the culprit and clear his own name. Sci-fi thriller based on the 2000AD comic-strip, starring Sylvester Stallone and Rob Schneider. (1995)

TUESDAY

The Men Who Stare at Goats, BBC1, 11.50pm

A journalist desperate to be posted to a war zone encounters a special forces agent, who claims to have been part of a top-secret project to endow soldiers with superhuman powers. As the reporter joins the supposed psychic on a journey across Iraq, he discovers the bizarre story behind the experiment. Satirical comedy, starring George Clooney. (2009)

Wanted, Friday, ITV, 11.05pm

WEDNESDAY

Step Brothers, Channel 5, 10pm

Brennan and Dale are two 40-year-old men who have never flown the nest. All that changes when Brennan's mother marries Dale's father, and the spoiled sons are forced to share a room. They take an instant dislike to each other, but when their long-suffering parents finally insist they find jobs, they learn to work together. Comedy, with Will Ferrell and John C Reilly. (2008)

THURSDAY

That Touch of Mink, Channel 4, 1.15pm

A sophisticated millionaire businessman goes in passionate pursuit of a strait-laced secretary. She is also attracted to him, but is saving herself for marriage while he only wants a casual affair. However, she remains convinced he is the man for her and tries to change his ways. Romantic comedy, starring Cary Grant, Doris Day and Audrey Meadows. (1962)

FRIDAY

Wanted, ITV, 11.05pm

A disillusioned man learns his father was a member of a secret society of assassins dedicated to eliminating people who are destined to commit acts of evil in the future. Having inherited his father's special abilities, he is recruited into the organisation and must take on a former member who has betrayed it. Action adventure, starring James McAvoy and Angelina Jolie. (2008)

The 13th Warrior, BBC1, 11.50pm

A disgraced nobleman exiled from his Baghdad home joins forces with Norse warriors at the close of the first millennium, and ends up battling seemingly invincible attackers during an epic journey. Action adventure, starring Antonio Banderas and Omar Sharif. (1999)

Pick of the Week

Dynamic duo's return is out of this world

Movie fans can rejoice as the ever-engaging Film 2013 returns for a new series.

While reviews of Sandra Bullock/George Clooney blockbuster Gravity, and the documentary Seduced and Abandoned are the backbone of this edition, the success of the show lies in the banter between Claudia Winkleman and co-presenter Danny Leigh.

In between working on Strictly Come Dancing, and hosting The Radio 2 Arts show, Claudia admits she has nothing but praise for Mr Leigh. "He's incredibly kind and brilliant. He's an intellect and he relishes great film," she enthuses. "I am basically always looking for Sandra Bullock. I'm like: 'Is she in it?' Danny says: 'Claud, you've got to stop speaking.'" Given her fondness for one of Hollywood's most powerful actresses, Gravity should leave her perched on the edge of her seat.

The tale of two astronauts stranded after their shuttle is wrecked by debris will leave many short of breath. Sandra's powerhouse performance has already suggested an Oscar nomination, while director Alfonso Cuarón could be up for Best Director.

Do Claudia and Danny discuss the films like Gravity before the show? "Sometimes. There are some films where I have to speak to him immediately. I can't wait. I phone him up and say: 'Did you see...?' But we try and not speak too much about it. We try not to argue, but if we do it's good fun to watch."

The Film 2013 team wisely keep their movies of the year list under wraps until December, so with that in mind, what's been Claudia's favourite film of the past 12 months? "Lincoln is the one that I have re-watched. I thought, 'Have I gone mad?' because I loved it so much, and it only gets better with more viewings. I absolutely loved it."

Is there a film that's changed her life? "Oh, they've all changed my life," she explains. "I've got a soft spot for ET. For me films are emotions and about the first time you saw it."

Danny admits he also has a fondness for Steven Spielberg's moving tale of a stranded alien. "As a child the big ones were things like Time Bandits and ET," he explains. "I started falling in love with the cinema at that point. Maybe when I was a little bit older than that I started watching older films."

I remember stumbling across Citizen Kane as a kid which was on TV at Christmas, and I was very into the Marx brothers as well."

Back to the present, and one of Claudia's fondest memories was seeing the most lucrative film of the year. "Iron Man 3, don't laugh, I think it was out at the beginning of this year, and I took my son. It was the first time me and him had gone to see a proper grown-up film, and when we left, he held my hand and he went, 'Mummy. Can we go and see it again?' So we just went straight back and watched the next viewing," she smiles. "How often does your son think you're cool enough to do that?"

Claudia Winkleman and Danny Leigh, Film 2013, Wednesday, 11.05pm

Best of the Rest

MONDAY

MasterChef: The Professionals BBC2, 8.30pm

MasterChef: The Professionals has run for five ever-gripping series before now, and we're still just as hooked – even those of us who can't knock up a salad without burning it – but judge Monica Galetti thinks she may have the answer to the show's success: "Because it's real, there's no acting involved; we give it to the (contestants) as it is. I love the fact that throughout the programme, we're nurturing the future of the culinary world." Monica joins fellow judges Gregg Wallace and Michel Roux Jr to meet the first batch of eight chefs. They're challenged to put together a dish using a selection of seven ingredients, including artichokes, mushrooms and chocolate. But they've only got an hour...

The Choir: Sing While You Work BBC2, 9pm

Most people would claim that, bar the odd warble in the shower if the mood so takes them, they can't sing. In fact, the very idea of standing in front of hundreds of people, belting out a tune probably leaves them in a cold sweat. But these folk haven't met choirmaster Gareth Malone. He's back for a second series to put more organisations through their choral paces – in a bid to find the best workplace choir. First up, Gareth's meeting the staff of P&O Ferries, but if he thought it was going to be as simple as taking them through the music scales he can think again – with choir members based at sea on both sides of the English Channel, he's going to have a logistical challenge to overcome...

TUESDAY

The Escape Artist BBC1, 9pm

Is it possible to be too good at your job? Junior barrister Will Burton (David Tennant) probably thinks so after his courtroom skills led to serial killer Liam Foyle (Toby Kebbell) being acquitted of murder and let back out on the streets. In this second episode, it looks like there might be a chance to make up for the miscarriage of justice as Liam is back in the dock. For once, Will is going to have to use his talents to bolster the prosecution's case – but he can't be seen to be getting involved as he's also a key witness in the trial. And just to add to the pressure, Will's old adversary Maggie Gardner (Sophie Okonedo) is leading Liam's defence.

WEDNESDAY

Agatha Christie's Poirot ITV, 8pm

In order to arrest infamous art thief Marrascaud, the Metropolitan Police create what they believe is a perfect trap. The bait is the Le Mesurier family, and in particular daughter Lucinda (Lorna Nickson Brown). She will be wearing an exceptionally expensive diamond necklace during her social debut, and with 'Hercules Vanquishing the Hydra', an invaluable work by Marrascaud's favourite artist Van Druijs on display, that should lure the light-fingered thief right into the trap. Naturally Hercule Poirot (David Suchet) is in attendance, but to everyone's amazement, Marrascaud steals the painting and jewels, but leaves the butchered body of Lucinda. Poirot is devastated, but a new case involving the missing maid of a famous Russian dancer could bring about Marrascaud's capture.

River Cottage to the Core Channel 4, 8pm

Nobody could ever accuse Hugh Fearnley-Whittingstall of being work-shy. It's anyone's guess as to whether or not television's busiest man will allow himself a couple of week's rest before his next project after wrapping up this series tonight, but he's definitely saved the best until last. With the changing of the seasons and the chill of autumn in the air, Hugh's keen to serve up some classic dishes – and it's all getting a bit fruity. He also meets a team from Gleaners UK, who harvest and distribute fruit that would otherwise have been left to rot. The pigs at River Cottage are moving onto a diet of apples from an unused orchard, while Gill Meller and Pam Corbin make the most of rosehips.

The Nation's Favourite Elvis Song, Friday, ITV, 9pm

THURSDAY

Breathless ITV, 9pm

The success of period dramas Mad Men and The Hour continue to cast a large shadow over nostalgic dramas such as this. Of course it doesn't hurt that Breathless boasts such a great cast, including Natasha Little, Iain Glen and Jack Davenport. In this week's offering, Elizabeth attempts to manage the situation with Mulligan alone, but it soon becomes obvious that he cannot be reasoned with. Unable to turn to Otto for help, Elizabeth realises Mulligan might win. Angela (Catherine Steadman) eventually gives in to her feelings for Otto, but before anything can happen, Thomas and Elizabeth arrive at the hospital, and remind Angela that he is a married man.

FRIDAY

The Nation's Favourite Elvis Song ITV, 9pm

Elvis Presley was one of the 20th century's most significant cultural icons. When he died in August 1977, aged 42, he left a legacy of some of the best-loved songs ever recorded. With the aid of archive footage and home videos, this documentary/countdown narrated by Zoe Ball, pays tribute to the man behind the music, explains how these classic songs came about and the effect they had on the world. Among the star-studded cast of contributors are Michael Bublé, Cliff Richard, Suzi Quatro, Michael Ball, Englebert Humperdink and Cerys Matthews. One of the highlights of the show is an interview with Priscilla Presley, Elvis's ex-wife and mother to their daughter Lisa Marie Presley.

The Nation Remembers

Remembrance Day and the Two Minute Silence have been observed since the end of the First World War, but their relevance remains undiminished. When we bow our heads in reflection, we remember those who fought for our freedom during the two World Wars. But we also mourn and honour those who have lost their lives in more recent conflicts. Today, with troops on in Afghanistan and other trouble spots around the world, Remembrance, and this two minute tribute, are as important as ever.

Each year the nation expresses its unequivocal support for The Royal British Legion's work through the Poppy Appeal. To find the different ways you can donate visit www.britishtitlegion.org.uk or call 08457 725 725.

Get on a winner with the new Honda CR-V

The new Honda CR-V is available in three trim levels – S, SE and SR. Prices start from £22,800

HONDA'S British built CR-V 1.6 i-DTEC is now in the salerooms. Available in three trim levels, prices for this new variant start at £22,800 on the road for the entry level S, £24,660 for the SE and £26,880 for the 1.6 i-DTEC range topping SR trim.

The new 1.6 i-DTEC diesel engine made its debut in the British built Civic earlier this year and now it's making its way into the popular CR-V.

With increasing demand for lower cost motoring, the trend for two-wheel drive diesel SUVs has grown and now represents over a quarter of the total C-SUV market in Europe. The new CR-V 1.6 i-DTEC is tackling this trend head on.

With the new 1.6 i-DTEC engine in the CR-V, customers get the best of both worlds; the practicality and styling of an SUV with the lower emission and fuel efficiency that a small diesel engine offers.

Fuel economy on the combined cycle is up to an impressive 62.8 mpg and means the CR-V has the potential to cover up to 800 miles on one tank of fuel. In addition, CO2 emissions as low as 119g/km mean the CR-V 1.6 i-DTEC qualifies for zero road tax for the first year and as low as £30 annual road tax thereafter.

Benefit

The introduction of this new engine ensures that the CR-V is an appealing proposition in the competitive corporate market. This new variant is expected to help the CR-V make an appearance on more fleet listings as it slips below the 120g/km barrier and is 2WD.

The car's combination of impressive fuel economy and agile performance, combined with the practicality and luggage space the CR-V is famed for, plus Honda's acknowledged reputation for reliability, it's a car which is expected to catch the eye of company car fleet managers and user choosers.

In the current tax year 2013/14, CR-V 1.6 S and SE grades will benefit from P11D tax rates starting from 18 per cent, only increasing by one per cent in tax year 2014/15, making for a highly tax efficient vehicle.

Benefits to both the fleet manager and private drivers are further increased with an outstanding combined cycle of 62.8mpg.

Adjustable

The new CR-V will be available with three generously equipped trim levels – S, SE and SR.

The entry level S costs £22,800 on the road and features DAB Radio, dual zone climate control air conditioning, cruise control, electric adjustable and heated door mirrors, USB connectivity, steering wheel remote audio controls, 5in Intelligent Multi Info Display (i-MID), 17in alloy wheels as well as all the driver safety aids such as ABS (Anti-Lock Braking System), driver seat power lumbar support and Vehicle Stability Assist (VSA) as standard.

An optional T Grade is also available on the S specification and for an additional £765 it adds SD Navigation system and Bluetooth Hands Free Telephone (HFT).

The next step up is the SE at £24,660 OTR featuring all the equipment found in the S model but with the addition of front and rear parking sensors, rear view camera, Bluetooth hands-free telephone, CAT 1 alarm with ultrasonic sensor, leather steering wheel, leather gear shift, rain-sensing auto wipers, dusk sensing auto lights and auto dim rear view mirror. SE customers also have the opportunity to upgrade to the T Grade to include the SD satellite navigation system.

Support

The SR tops off the CR-V 1.6 i-DTEC range at £26,880 OTR with standard goodies including, Alcantara/leather upholstery, heated front seats, premium audio with sub-woofer, painted roof rails, privacy glass, Bi-HID xenon headlights with auto levelling, active cornering lights, High Beam Support System (HSS), headlight washers, front fog lights, driver and passenger seat power lumbar support and 18in alloy wheels.

The CR-V 1.6 i-DTEC is available in two-wheel drive only and features a six-speed manual gearbox with an exact capacity of 1597cc. It offers a maximum power output of 120PS at 4,000rpm while maximum torque is 300Nm at 2,000rpm.

The combination of a lightweight engine and two-wheel drive system means that the new CR-V 1.6 i-DTEC weighs 116kg less than the 2.2 i-DTEC model which not only helps to bring down emissions and achieve better fuel economy, but ensures sure-footedness whilst also delivering agile handling.

Cool for cars – Merc rises in brands list

Urban chic – Mercedes has moved up five places since making the list last year

MERCEDES-BENZ again features prominently in the annual CoolBrands list, ranked 11th from more than 10,000 independently-identified brands in the 2013/14 survey.

The company's position shows a climb of five places over its 2012 CoolBrands debut, and is the highest position of any "full-line" automotive brand – describing a car company with a wide range of models. The outright winner was Apple.

The CoolBrands list, now in its 12th year, follows a vote by a combination of 3,000 consumers and a panel of 37 designers, style experts, media personalities and prominent figures from the worlds of TV, fashion and music.

Helping rate coolness this year were the likes of TV chef Gizzi Erskine, musicians Laura Mvula and Charli XCX, Festival founder Rob da Bank and model Daisy Lowe.

This year, Mercedes-Benz has delivered a wealth of new models to UK customers including: The new A-Class compact hatchback; compact CLA four-door coupé; New E-Class family; GL-Class SUV; the stunning new S-Class luxury saloon. The exciting GLA compact SUV will arrive in spring 2014.

Marcus Breitschwerdt, president and CEO Mercedes-Benz UK, said: "Mercedes-Benz is breaking one sales record after another in the UK – we're the fastest-growing premium manufacturer, and AMG is the UK's fastest-growing high performance brand.

"Our showrooms around the country are full of the coolest cars we've ever made, and we're tireless in our efforts to bring more innovation, style – and great service of course – to more customers than ever before."

Breitschwerdt continued: "It's really great to see that as well as attracting more new customers to our brand, our efforts have been identified by a panel of expert judges and 3,000 consumers."

Stephen Cheliotis, Chairman of the CoolBrands Expert Council, said: "The brand qualities we examine in the CoolBrands survey – such as authenticity and innovation – can be key influences on consumer purchasing, so performing well is not just a thumbs up for a brand's reputation, but an indication of its future success."

American icon now more Euro pleasing

By Ian Donaldson

LET'S talk sweeping generalisations: Americans like big engines in their cars and don't worry too much about fit and finish.

We Europeans, on the other hand, like our cars well built and economical, especially with fuel prices heading for outer space. For decades those two sets of differences were obvious every time the Americans tried to sell a car this side of the Atlantic; a few of us had the money to feed their cars' thirst and some of us didn't mind a build quality the wrong side of a DIY project.

Well, things are changing. Even an American driver worries about the cost of a fill up and exposure to the better European machines has developed a taste for cars that make an owner proud to be seen in one.

It's hard to think of a brand more closely linked with the States than Jeep, the builder of tough machines that will go places a well trained tank driver might hesitate over.

But even Jeep, now controlled by Fiat in Italy, is aiming to please European buyers with cars that compete with the best on performance and economy and don't look shabby inside, anymore.

The shining example of this newish way of thinking comes in the muscular but gently understated looks of the latest Jeep Grand Cherokee, with refreshed looks at the front and deeper changes inside and under the skin.

Decent

Most important are the Fiat inspired changes to the big diesel engine that powers almost every Euro-bound Grand Cherokee; a vastly powerful petrol V8 is available but will be bought by almost nobody here.

It's now more economical and, bolted to a new eight speed automatic transmission, gives this big, heavy car a spritely turn of speed and the possibility of decent economy with sensible use of the right foot.

It's up there with the likes of Land Rover's Discovery on both performance and consumption and feels genuinely swift when the super-smooth gearbox is prodded into changing down.

Even more surprising, with memories of wobbly riding Jeeps of old, was an air sprung suspension system that coped beautifully with a host of road surfaces.

Inside, the changes are aimed at banishing the built down to a price feel of too many American cars. It's a partial success, with smart leather on the seats and a new and delightfully legible instrument panel, quite the equal of anything from, say, Mercedes.

Only some oddly open grained wood trim in black let the side down, even if a step up from the horrid and obviously plastic 'wood' we used to see in upmarket American autos.

Where there's no denying the Grand Cherokee's strength is in what you get for your money. The range starts at £36,995 for the Laredo version, the only one with a depowered version of the diesel engine fitted across the range.

You guess it's there to make the entry price look enticing but I suspect more buyers will go for the £49,495 Summit that tops the diesel range and comes dripping with kit.

Highlights include a high tech four-wheel drive system, Harmon Kardon hi-fi that would fill the Royal Albert Hall, electric seats, intelligent cruise control that keeps you a safe distance from the car in front and a sat nav displayed on a big screen that's a model of clarity.

It adds up to comfortably the most European feeling off-roader from Jeep and is worthy of shortlisting against its obvious rival from Solihull.

The new Cherokee is more refined in the cabin with better fuel consumption

Tough machines that feel genuinely swift when the gearbox changes down

CARTER

Paul William George
(Cart)

Passed away peacefully at home on Monday, October 21, 2013, aged 59 years.

Loving Brother to Julie and devoted Son to Bill and Margaret.

Those we love don't go away, they walk beside us every day, unseen, unheard but always near, still loved, still missed and very dear.

Paul's Funeral will take place at St. Chad's Church, Chads Moor, at 11am, on Wednesday, November 6, 2013, then on to Stafford Crematorium for a Committal at 12 noon.

Everyone is invited to join the Family afterwards at The Nest Public House, Chads Moor, from 1pm.

No flowers with donations if desired to Emphysema and Arthritis Charities.

No dress code.

in memoriam

BEVAN

Grahame

He passed away so fast, amid all our fears. Not even time to dry our tears.

He asked for nothing and gave everything. The very best.

Malcolm, Mark, Debra, Sean, Chris, Alex, Albert and Pop.

God bless.

OWEN

Muriel

One year.

As you walk through the gates of Heaven, we know you're not alone, loved ones who went before you are there to welcome you home.

God bless you Mom.

Paul, Jackie, Amy, Adam and Kevin.

SCOTT

John

One year 31 October, 2013.

We think about you always, we talk about you too. We have lots of lovely memories, but we wish with all our hearts, we still had you.

From your loving Wife Mo, Iain, Shelley and all the Family.

God Bless.

NOTICE TO READERS. Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a Puppy Farmer:

1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with its Mother.

2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.

3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if pedigree. Whilst Midland News Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

(CANNOCK CHASE) (CIVIL ENFORCEMENT OF PARKING) (PROHIBITION AND RESTRICTION OF WAITING AND LOADING AND PARKING PLACES) (CONVERSION) ORDER 2009 (AMENDMENT) NO. 16/20XX

1. Staffordshire County Council propose to make a Traffic Order under Sections 1, 2, 4, 32, 35, 45, 46, 47, 49, 53, 124 (1)(d) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, and the Traffic Management Act 2004 which will:

(a) prevent you from parking your vehicle at any time on the following length of road for more than 40 minutes, with no return within 40 minutes on Monday to Saturday inclusive from 8am to 6pm on:

B4154 Market Street, Hednesford – (north-east side) from a point approximately 38 metres south-east of the centreline of its junction with Victoria Street in a south-easterly direction for a distance of approximately 98 metres.

B4154 Market Street, Hednesford – (north-east side) from a point approximately 142 metres south-east of the centreline of its junction with Victoria Street in a south-easterly direction for a distance of approximately 66 metres.

B4154 Market Street, Hednesford – (north-east side) from a point approximately 26 metres south-east of the centreline of its junction with Cardigan Place in a south-easterly direction for a distance of approximately 33 metres.

2. Exceptions will permit waiting for the purposes of taking up and setting down passengers; loading or unloading goods; for vehicles displaying a Disabled Person's Badge; and where necessary in connection with the maintenance of roads and the supply of gas, electricity, telephones, sewerage services and water and in the service of the Environment Agency; for emergency service vehicles; for vehicles being used for the provision of a universal postal service by a universal service provider; for buses waiting at an authorised bus stop; for vehicles being used for floods defence works or land drainage works; and for so long as is reasonably necessary in connection with any wedding or funeral.

3. This Order will amend the Staffordshire County Council (Cannock Chase) (Civil Enforcement of Parking) (Prohibition and Restriction of Waiting and Loading and Parking Places) (Conversion) Order 2009.

4. This Order will be called the Staffordshire County Council (Cannock Chase) (Civil Enforcement of Parking) (Prohibition and Restriction of Waiting and Loading and Parking Places) (Conversion) Order 2009 (Amendment) No. 16/20xx.

5. This Order will amend the Plan marked BM 232 incorporating waiting restrictions on the road specified in Article No. 1 above and which form part of the Staffordshire County Council (Cannock Chase) (Civil Enforcement of Parking) (Prohibition and Restriction of Waiting and Loading and Parking Places) (Conversion) Order 2009 and in substitution thereof.

6. Full details of the proposal are in the draft Order which, together with a map showing the road involved and a statement of the County Council's reasons for proposing to make the Order, may be examined during normal office hours at the office of the Deputy Chief Executive & Director for Place; and during normal opening hours at Hednesford Library, Market Street, Hednesford, Cannock or via the internet at www.staffordshire.gov.uk/trafficregulationorders.

7. IF YOU WISH TO OBJECT TO THE PROPOSED ORDER YOU SHOULD SEND THE GROUNDS OF YOUR OBJECTION IN WRITING TO THE DEPUTY CHIEF EXECUTIVE & DIRECTOR FOR PLACE, HIGHWAYS, 1 STAFFORDSHIRE PLACE, TIPPING STREET, STAFFORD, ST16 2LP NOT LATER THAN 21 NOVEMBER 2013 QUOTING REFERENCE HC/PS/TM/TR26/13.

LONDON THEATRE

Coach inclusive breaks – Two days

Selected weekend departures

Saturday Night from £129.95

Dine and Dance from £139.95

Take in a top West End show and have some free time in London for shopping and sightseeing. For the Dine and Dance option see the matinee performance before heading back to the hotel for dinner and disco (conditions apply). For the Saturday Night option you will see the evening performance.

Both breaks include a theatre ticket, overnight stay in a four-star outer London hotel, with full English breakfast (plus dinner for Dine and Dance options). Pick ups offered are Dudley, Shrewsbury, Telford, Walsall and Wolverhampton.

Rail inclusive breaks – Two or three days

Departures most weekends

Saturday Night Theatre from £139.95

Catch the Theatre Express and enjoy a super two-day weekend break in the capital. There's a choice of London hotels tickets are for a Saturday evening performance.

Rail travel is standard class with the option to upgrade. Departs Saturday morning/early afternoon from Birmingham New Street, Shrewsbury, Stafford or Wolverhampton, returning on the Sunday afternoon/early evening to give plenty of free time for shopping and sightseeing.

Theatre Showstopper from £189.95

Theatre Weekend from £189.95

These popular theatre packages to the West End depart from Birmingham New Street, Shrewsbury, Stafford or Wolverhampton on the Friday morning returning on the Sunday afternoon/early evening. Standard class travel is included with the option to upgrade. Two nights stay at a three or four-star London hotel of your choice (hotel supplements may apply) and a top priced ticket for a Friday evening performance for the Theatre Showstopper package or choose your price band for the Saturday evening performance with the Theatre Weekend package.

*The "from" price and price bands vary for each show – see brochure for details. Single room supplements apply.

Organised by Omega Events Ltd (ABTA Y590X)

Scholars take the shine off Dymamo

Chasetown 0 Loughborough Dynamo 0
DYNAMO had the best early chance, with Robert Norris curving a dipping free kick narrowly over Ryan Price's crossbar.

Although Chasetown had good possession, Price was the busier goalkeeper in the first half, keeping out two efforts from Bruno Holden.

But Chasetown who would argue they were denied the best chance of the half to open the scoring.

Ramone Stephens outpaced Nathan Watson and was tugged back close to the penalty box.

The referee consulted with his assistant and awarded a free kick outside the box, which was deflected for a Scholars corner.

Nine minutes into the second period, the lively Holden struck the inside of Price's right hand post.

Paul Sullivan was introduced to partner Nick Wellecomme and the two combined to force Laurie Pearson into a sharp save.

Late on, Price palmed over a long range effort and in the dying seconds Jack Farmer's shot just flew high.

Burntwood comeback for the draw

Midlands 3 West North Edwardians 19 Burntwood 19

BURNTWOOD came back from 19-3 down to level the scores but it was a close run.

Will Peach's conversion of Danny Poole's try was the last kick of the game, five minutes into added time.

The result preserves Burntwood's unbeaten start to the season but they slip to second behind Veseyans.

Eds' forwards worked the ball back from a clearance kick and broke the last tackle to open scoring.

The visitors created three penalty chances but only one was good. From a scrum to win the next put in. After two thrusts at the line they forced their way over by the posts for a converted try.

Indiscipline cost Burntwood Eds' third try. The arrears were reduced after 61 minutes when Peach kicked a penalty goal which was followed by two more.

A catch and drive was finished off by Poole junior and the outcome depended on Peach who squared it.

Redditch rains on Chasetown this time

FA Carlsberg Trophy

Redditch United 2 Chasetown 0

IT was no more than Redditch deserved on the balance of the two games as the Worcestershire side clinically made their way into the next round of the FA Trophy to earn a home tie with Brigg Town.

In terms of overall play in this re-staged game, there was not a lot between the two sides in general play but the hosts had two great goalscoring chances and took them both, while Chasetown's two best chances were a whisker wide.

The visitors also struck the crossbar in the final seconds.

If anyone shaded the first half it was probably Chasetown, but in a half lacking gormouth action it was the Scholars who came closest when Tesfa Robinson headed a Simon Brown corner wide of the upright.

The four days since the initial game gave double scorer Omari Sterling-James time to recover from the injury that forced him out of the game recently, and maybe Chasetown's hopes were lifted when Sterling-James failed to start the second half.

Unfortunately though, his replacement Harvey Headley was straight in the action, netting two minutes after the restart.

The Scholars responded positively and Lee Butler volleyed narrowly over the bar from outside the box, quickly followed by half chances for Brown and Paul Sullivan which home Sam Hornby dealt with comfortably.

Butler, with a low drive which whizzed millimetres wide of the upright with Hornby stranded and Sullivan with a header he perhaps should have hit the target with, were the differences between the finishing of the hosts and that of the visitors.

Thirteen minutes from time, a right wing move found its way into the path of Ashley Sammons and he picked his spot to fire beyond Ryan Price and end any realistic hope of a comeback from the Scholars.

Substitute Theo Robinson tested Hornby with a low shot from close range and Jack Farmer struck the crossbar with a speculative long range effort. But, it was United who deservedly progressed to the next round.

Redditch United: Hornby, Recci, Caines (Bridgwater, 75 mins), Oshungbure, Clarke, Flanagan, Sterling-James (Headley, HT mins), Sammons, Ahenkorah, Price, Molyneux

Other Subs: McDonald, Hylton, Catlow (not used)

Chasetown: Price, Farmer, Keenan, Slater, Tesfa Robinson, Jephcott (Theo Robinson, 63 mins), Brown, Butler, Griffiths (Wellecomme, 63 mins), Sullivan (Stephens, 74 mins), Beckett

Other Subs: Forde, Watson (not used).

Grounds for concern as Scholars defeated

Gresley FC 5 Chasetown 2
GRESLEY were fully deserving of the three points after tremendous hard work from their ground staff got their pitch playable for this fixture.

The Derbyshire side were ahead inside eight minutes after Kieran O'Connell burst down the left and squared the ball to Jordan Nadat who fired into the bottom right corner of the net from close range. The Scholars retaliated with a Theo Robinson free kick which was comfortably held by Ross Etheridge as the visitors looked to restore parity quickly.

Robinson floated over a couple of decent looking crosses from the left wing which eluded everyone, but the third one then found Nick Wellecomme whose shot was parried, with Paul Sullivan firing the rebound over the bar.

Sullivan went close again before Gresley caught Chasetown on the counter attack in the final minute of the first half with Rob Spencer netting with a precise header. Ryan Price got his hands to the effort but it was too strong to keep out.

Craig Harris' men came out earlier than their opponents at the start of the second period and started with some neat passing down the right wing, until the Gresley left back John Guy got a toe in to help the ball into the path of Kieran O'Connell whose strong run left the Scholars in his trail and he finished neatly to Price's right.

After 56 minutes, Chasetown were thrown a lifeline when Sullivan forced his way into the penalty area and Gresley skipper Jamie Barrett sent him tumbling. Simon Brown's penalty was thunderous and Etheridge had no chance to keep it out.

Three minutes later, Gresley restored their three goal advantage with some neat inter-passing which resulted in Nadat netting his second and probably killing off any chance of a Scholars comeback.

Midway through the half, Paolo Piliero added a fifth before the hosts had a sixth goal chalked out for offside.

Twelve minutes from the end, debutant Craig Bannister slipped a gorgeous pass into the path of Sullivan who finished in style to add his fifth goal of the season.

Chasetown: Price, Forde, Keenan, Slater, Farmer, Beckett (Whieldon, 79 mins), Brown, Butler (Jephcott, 75 mins), Wellecomme, Sullivan, Theo Robinson (Bannister, 62 mins)

Other subs: Askey, Watson (not used)

Zac's attack is enough to earn him the title

A YOUNG kickboxer from Cannock has become the new English champion.

Zac Evans from Huntington Kickboxing Club became the title holder after beating his opponent Jack Wiles.

Evans was facing his biggest challenge to date as he competed in his first title fight against the previously undefeated Wiles from the Eclipse Club in Burton.

The fighter, who had been disqualified in his last fight due to a technicality was taking no chances to ensure history didn't repeat itself, as he competed for the English BLOC title.

The fight held at Burton Kickboxing Academy got off to an even-paced start as Evans and Wiles found their distance with each other making full use of the ring.

By the second round the pace quickened dramatically with Wiles initially keeping Evans at bay.

Towards the end of the round though, Evans began to break through with his numerous spinning kicks. As both fighters approached each other for the start of round three, the referee warned the pair that the fight needed to calm slightly to stay within the light continuous rules.

During round three the referee repeated his warning, raising concerns that history may indeed repeat itself for Evans.

But as the fight rapidly went towards the final round, Evans had gained all the advantage and he was soon announced as the new English title holder. Evans' coach Shaun Preece said: "I am delighted for Zac as fighting at this level is a real achievement for him."

Pitmen's boss very happy with opponents

HEDNESFORD Town boss Rob Smith is delighted and excited over the Pitmen's FA Cup First Round draw against League One Crawley Town a week on Saturday.

The Pitmen supporters, so important to their team's campaign so far, were obviously dreaming of pulling a big boy in the shape of Wolves, Walsall or Sheffield United, but the next best thing was a home draw against a team over which they have realistic hopes of recording a shock victory.

"I think it's a great draw. To be at home was important for me and to draw a team in the upper places of League One exceeded my expectations.

"All the players and management are very excited about testing themselves against a quality side and I'm very proud of the lads for achieving what we set out to do at the start of the season.

The match is unlikely to be chosen for live television coverage, but a crowd of more than 2,000 is expected at Keys Park. Supporters keen to attend are asked to get there early as The Pitmen look to cause a shock in this year's tournament, ranking alongside their Cup exploits of yesteryear.

Police side cop it with cup clash

West Midlands Police 1 Heath Hayes 7

HEATH Hayes had a much easier passage into the next round of The JW Hunt Cup than expected against a side that had scored 18 goals and only conceded one in their three previous games.

It started alarmingly for the visitors as a fine move straight from the kick-off by the Bobbies ended with Dan Jarret striking the outside of the post before a Hayes player had touched the ball.

They soon shrugged off this early scare and Tom Green fired them into a 10th minute lead. He then doubled the score as Hayes took total control.

Dan Scragg made it three before Jarret pulled one back just before the break.

At half time Hayes bought on Ryan Holden, Alex Rooft and Chris Geldart and with Rooft grabbing himself a hat-trick and Geldart also scoring they ran out comfortable winners.

Seconds pile the pressure on Leek

Burntwood A XV 50
Leek 2nds 13

BURNTWOOD'S second string turned in another impressive performance to overwhelm Leek in this club fixture, running in eight tries in the process.

They were strong from the off and the first try was not long in coming.

Ollie Whitehouse and Craig Seedhouse made inroads before putting Darryl Organ away for his first try of the afternoon.

Whitehouse was over the whitewash himself soon after the restart for a 10-point lead before Ben Tranter showed his lightning pace on the wing to run the third in.

Leek replied with two penalty goals to leave the half time score at 17-6.

Whitehouse scored his second try of the match from a quickly-taken penalty. Then Organ added his second try which was almost a carbon copy of his first.

He then turned provider by offloading to skipper Dave Ward who charged over from the 22.

With the job done, Burntwood were lax in defence and allowed the visitors to score a converted try.

Despite having a player in the sin bin, Burntwood grabbed two more tries from Luke Rookyard and then Seedhouse.

● Burntwood have been drawn to play Rugby St. Andrews at home in the Third Round of the RFU Senior Vase competition on Saturday, November 16, kick off 2.15 pm.

Homing in on success

CRAIG WESTCARR says finding a home at Walsall has led to his fine scoring form.

The 28-year-old striker is in some of the most prolific form of his career and is currently the Saddlers' top scorer, having netted six times already this term.

Westcarr, who initially joined the club on loan from Chesterfield in January, has experienced something of a nomadic career since breaking into the professional game as a 16-year-old with Nottingham Forest.

"I felt settled from the moment I signed last season," he said.

"Since I have been here everything has been brilliant, we have been on good runs of form."

Promoter's pleased as punch by accolade

Promoter Ron Gray

CANNOCK boxing impresario Ron Gray has been given the sport's most prestigious accolade, the Sir Henry Cooper Award, marking his 50 years in the game, writes Brian Clifford.

"It was a real knockout to receive such recognition from the British Board of Control," said Ron. "And, to put the icing on the cake, the trophy was presented to me by Henry's two sons, Henry Marco and John."

Recalling his long friendship with British, Empire and European heavyweight champion Henry Cooper, Ron went back to 1959 when, as a 17-year-old - having held his licence for a year - he went over to Sweden to fight a home heavyweight.

Boxing

Top of the bill was a European title fight between Sweden's Ingemar Johansson and Britain's Dick Richardson at the Gothenburg football stadium and Cooper was there to watch.

"Henry was the only one in the 63,000 crowd who was cheering for me," says Ron. "I sat next to Henry on the plane home and that began our long friendship."

Ron was outpointed that night, faring better than Richardson who was knocked out.

Managed by George Middleton for six of his 10 years as a pro, Ron retired from the ring in 1968 and concentrated on his business. But he was back on the scene in 1972, taking over as the West Midlands' main promoter when Willenhall-based bookmaker-promoter Alex Griffiths died. That was the start of 25 years as a promoter at Wolverhampton Civic Hall, Dudley

Town Hall, the Park Hall, Wolverhampton, the Albany, Birmingham, Trentham Gardens, Nottingham, Evesham, and Cleethorpes.

All the time Ron had a dual role - also acting as a manager as well and looking after young hopefuls like Paul Chance, Micky Baker, Roy Skeldon, Tommy Taylor, Peter Till, Nigel Rafferty and Wolverhampton's Richard Carter, the 50th young boxer to join the Gray stable.

But the star was, of course, British and European featherweight champion Pat Cowdell.

Woeful Hayes lose out

Stourport Swifts 3
Heath Hayes 1

AFTER a run of impressive performances Heath Hayes let themselves down badly with a woeful display against a Swifts side who had been on a poor run of late.

It was a missed opportunity to put some daylight between themselves and the bottom clubs but it now puts them back among the relegation candidates.

It started well when Adam Langley was put through by Dave Waple and his well-struck shot from 20 yards beat home keeper Lewis Solly.

Swifts came more into the game as the half wore on and after conceding a series of niggling free kicks the Hayes defence got into a terrible tangle and John Griffin put the home side level.

Mitch Teece was then forced to leave the field with an ankle injury.

On the hour Langley lost the ball on the halfway line and it was played quickly up to Griffin who fired his team in front.

Parsonage and Dennis Pickett then got in a terrible mess, gifting the ball to James Lemmon whose cross allowed Gary Walker an easy tap in.

Lockmen's boss leaves the club

WILLENHALL Town manager Neil Perks has left the Lockmen with the club citing "work and family commitments".

Willenhall are 21st in the West Midlands League Premier Division with just three wins from 17 games this season and lost 8-0 to Sporting Khalsa on Saturday.

CUP OF CHEER AS PITMEN PROGRESS

FA Cup Fourth Qualifying Round
Stamford 0 Hednesford Town 2

ELLIOTT Durrell was the FA Cup hero again for Hednesford Town as the club's top scorer calmly converted two second half penalties.

This gave The Pitmen safe passage through to the First Round Proper for the first time since 2006 where they will face League One outfit Crawley.

The army of travelling Pitmen supporters saw their team play really solidly against a Stamford side who, thanks mostly to the imperious performances of defensive trio Ben Bailey, Francino Francis and John Disney, struggled to threaten for long periods.

In truth, The Pitmen should have been in the lead by half time through Durrell on 32 minutes when the diminutive striker picked the ball up 40 yards out, advanced with towards goal, and hit an unstoppable dipping drive which flew past the helpless Andrew Stevens only to bounce off the inside of the post and roll clear.

Positive

The closest Stamford came was on 15 minutes when Dan Lawlor ghosted past Disney and crossed for David Moyo who headed straight at Dan Crane. But it was in the second half that, despite a positive start, Stamford gifted two goals to the away side.

It is fair to say that Nathan Haines had a half to forget as he was twice penalised for offences in the penalty area, the first a mindless barge into Lennon, the second a push on Bailey when Durrell's cross looked to be going out of play.

On the first occasion after 55 minutes, Durrell confidently sent Stevens the wrong way, slotting the ball into the left corner after waiting for the keeper to commit himself and the second penalty, which effectively wrapped the game up on 79 minutes, was again expertly converted.

Football

Despite some pressure on Hednesford's penalty area Stamford looked bereft of ideas in between the two goals as the gap in quality became obvious, Lennon continued to look lively and Kris Taylor was his usual calming influence in midfield, ensuring The Pitmen kept the ball well.

The Pitmen solidly saw out the final 10 minutes with Francis especially strong in central defence and substitute Dave MacPherson strengthening the midfield, as their FA Cup run continued with ecstatic chants from the supporters regarding the possibility of reaching Wembley.

An appearance in the final is pretty unlikely but the fans can look to emulate the famous run of 1997 that saw them reach the third round.

Having reached the First Round proper for only the third time in 12 years, Crawley visit Keys Park on November 9, kick off at 3pm.
